BALLOT FIGHT NEARS CLIMAX IN CLEVELAND

Top Candidates Concentrate Efforts in Area Holding Seventh of Ohio Vote.

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Campaigning in the top Ohio election contests — governor and U. S. senator—was concentrated today in Cleveland where about one-seventh of the state's voters will ballot next Tuesday.

The political caravan brought its road show here last night for a final stand with Gov. Frank J. Lausche and Sen. James W. Huffman sharing rally platforms to plead the Democratic cause and Republican Thomas J. Herbert and John W. Bricker attacking the national and state administration of the Democratic party.

All were to continue their campaigning here with speeches today and tonight.

* * *

Raps Sugar Muddle.

Bricker, candidate for U. S. senate, pegged an onslaught on the New Deal on a sugar scarcity which he claimed was "the worst in our history."

"Thousands of housewives have been unable to redeem sugar coupon 9 and 10 which became good in March and July because grocers are out of sugar," Bricker declared, so "the OPA decided to extend them."

"The whole sorry muddle is but another manifestation of bureaucratic planning and fuzzy thinking."

Bricker contended that "the bureaucrats in Washington reduced sugar production in the past two years" and "approved diversion of 1,730,000 tons of American-owned sugar for export."

* * *

Huffman Hits Back.

Bricker's opponent, Senator Huffman, answered the Republican nominee's assertion of Tuesday that the New Deal had disappointed World War II veterans by declaring that the Democratic party "has not been outdone by any in the history of the United States in fairness to veterans."

In the gubernatorial battle, between a Republican native son and a former Democratic mayor of Cleveland, candidates' speeches stuck to state issues.

Republican Nominee Herbert asked Governor Lausche to "explain why the additional benefits authorized by congress and the Ohio legislature in August" for old age pensioners "have been delayed until one week before election."

* * *

Cites Surplus.

Herbert claimed that "during his 22 months in office the average payment to pensioners was $32 a month" while the governor accumulated a surplus of $2,000,000 in the pension fund and pensioners' cost of living mounted.

Herbert also maintained

Herbert also charged Lausche's administration failed to sponsor a program for care of tubercular patients.

In another part of the city Lausche at the same time was declaring that it was "a matter of great pride for the administration and for the citizens of Ohio" that his administration was "the first in many years to interest itself in tuberculosis."

The governor said Ohio was in the best financial condition of its history and would be able to make "substantial progress" in the next two years in increasing aid to local governments, especially schools; raising state employes' pay to meet increased living costs, and financing carrying charges on a bonus for World War II veterans.

CLEARING PROMISED GRID FANS TONIGHT

Clearing skies and cooler temperatures were promised today by the U. S. Weather Bureau for football fans planning to attend the Johnny Appleseed - Simpson junior high school football championship game at 8 p. m. in Senior high stadium.

Tomorrow is expected to be partly cloudy and cool.

The clear and balmy weather which Mansfielders have been enjoying came to an abrupt end this morning as residents awoke to grey skies and a cold drizzle.

The thermometer hit a high of 75 degrees at Hayesville yesterday, while the low last night was 50. Only .03 inches of rain fell in the 24-hour period up to 8 a. m. today.

CPA OK'S EXPANSION

WASHINGTON —(UP)— The civilian production administration today approved a $3,000,000 power plant expansion project at Dayton, O.

Centenary To Open Tonight

The four-day celebration of the centennial of St. Peter's Catholic church will begin officially tonight at 7:30 when Msgr. R. C. Goebel, pastor of the church, blesses the articles to be used in tomorrow's consecration of the altars.

Preceded by special Masses and worship during the past several weeks, tonight's service will include four blessings by Msgr. Goebel.

First he will bless the Gregorian water to be sprinkled on the three altars tomorrow. The incense to be used in Friday's consecration of altars and the cement that will seal the small tomb where church relics are to be placed, also will be specially blessed.

The fourth group of articles to be given the special blessings by Msgr. Goebel will be the altar cloths. These also will be used in the service tomorrow morning.

* * *

PASTOR TO EXPLAIN SIGNIFICANCE OF EACH.

The blessings will be accompanied by explanatory comment by the pastor, who will tell of the special significance of each step.

The service tonight will be brief, lasting only about 45 minutes.

For tomorrow morning's consecration, given once to each altar of a Catholic church, The Most Rev. Karl J. Alter, Bishop of Toledo, will preside.

He will consecrate the main altar. The other two altars will be consecrated by Msgr. Goebel and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. R. T. Kinnane, pastor of St. Mary's church in Tiffin.

Rev. R. V. O'Conner of Toledo, pastor of the Good Shepherd church, will be the narrator. It is expected that 60 visiting priests will attend the service.

Friday's special service will start at 10:30 a. m.

LEWIS HOLDING ODDS IN FIGHT

WASHINGTON —(AP) —John L. Lewis appeared certain today to emerge from his fight with the government a bigger winner than ever.

With Lewis still holding the whip hand—backed by the tacit but nonetheless real threat of another strike by his 400,000 soft coal miners—all signs point to eventual new government concessions in the negotiations scheduled to start tomorrow.

Whether a walkout will intervene remains to be seen, but here are the signposts that say the United Mine Workers' chief in the end will get at least part of what he wants.

Lewis apparently has won the first round—getting the government to talk higher wages with him.

The government is anxious to avert a coal strike in November, with winter's chill approaching. And the administration is well aware of what would happen under the miners' historic no-contract no-work stand should Lewis cancel the agreement on schedule, Nov. 20.

In other words, Lewis has indicated clearly that a strike for higher pay may occur—even during government operation—and the government has just as clearly indicated it wants to avoid one. The answer seems certain, therefore, to be: pay concessions for the miners.

Ohio Drinkers To Get Bonus

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Ohio drinkers were granted a one-bottle bonus of blended whisky today by the state liquor control department for the next ration period beginning Monday, Nov. 4. The period ends Saturday, Nov. 16.

The bonus must be purchased at the same time the regular unit is taken, A. I. Balmert, assistant liquor director, said.

Tavern operators also will share in the increased supply, getting two cases of blended whisky in addition to the normal 90 per cent of their total weekly bottle purchases during the first half of 1942.

Balmert said a 16 per cent increase in grain supply to distillers probably would begin affecting the supply of whisky sent the state in November.

ADDED ATTRACTIONS—These John Simpson and Johnny Appleseed drum majors and majorettes will perform during the half of the seventh annual grid clash between the Bulldogs and pioneers tonight at 8 in the Senior high stadium with the junior high school championships at stake. Last year's game was played before 6,000 fans. The John Simpson pupils at top (left to right) are Virginia Bowie, Carolee Hunter, Janice Cotton, and Jon Hallibrin, with the Bulldogs' head drum majorette, Shirley Lay at the top of the pyramid and Drum Major Jim Haring in front. Appleseed pupils (below) are Junior Wynn, drum major; Dance French, head drum majorette, and Shirley Tucker, Lawanda Holzworth, Marilyn Brown, Arlene Locke, Sue Ann Schwab, Jackie Fisher, Dana Hoffman and Beverly Mertler.—(News-Journal staff photos).

Labor Disputes Cost 98,224,000 Man-Days In 9 Months This Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Strike idleness during the first nine months of 1946 exceeded by nearly three times the working time similarly lost in all of 1945, the previous record year.

Government figures which showed this today placed at 98,225,000 the number of man-days lost due to management-labor disputes during the January - through - September period.

For all of last year the total was 38,025,000. Earlier peaks were 28,425,000 in 1937; 26,219,000 in 1927 and 23,048,000 in 1941.

The bureau of labor statistics, which compiled the figures, said the number of strikes and lockouts for the first nine months of this year totaled 3,575, compared with 3,784 for all of 1945.

Strikes Bitter.

The reason for the big jump in man days lost, officials said, is that postwar strikes have been bitter and for keeps, hence extended for longer periods. During the war walkouts generally were small, spontaneous and quickly settled.

BLS didn't begin keeping its present type of strike statistics until 1927, so no comparison is possible between the postwar year 1946 and the postwar year 1919 on the basis of man days of work lost.

However, in 1919, BLS says there were 4,160,000 workers involved in strikes. The figure this year may surpass that mark because for the first nine months of 1946 the total involved was 3,805,000.

This is a difference of only 355,000 struck workers but there were 535,000 on strike for the single month of September, principally due to the maritime and New York trucking strikes, now largely settled.

The BLS statistics show how strikes became more severe immediately after the war ended. Three-fourth of all the 38,025,000 man-days idle in 1945 came in the months following V-J day.

Thereafter the long and widespread steel, auto, coal and electric workers' strikes began to pile up this year's big idleness total. February was the record month with 21,500,000 man-days lost.

For September, the last month recorded, the figure was 5,000,000. By way of comparison there were only 3,317,000 man-days lost because of strikes in the entire year of 1930.

Youth Explains Death Mystery

LOUISVILLE, Ky. —(U.P.)— Jefferson county police today closed the case of Ronnie Tritt, the 14-year-old Boy Scout whose mysterious death by hanging baffled them for nearly two months.

Police said James Marvin Gray, 15, playmate of young Tritt, "confessed" he saw Ronnie fall from a tree, hanging himself accidentally with a rope he had tied around his neck during play.

CHARTER BUS TO FOLLOW TEAM

The Luther League of the First Lutheran church has chartered a bus to take 17 members of the league to the Mansfield-Toledo Waite football game Friday night in Toledo, Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell of the church said today.

The busload of young people will supplement the hundreds of other Mansfield fans who will make the trip on the special Mansfield Tim train and in their own cars.

"We're Tyger rooters one and all here in the league," Rev. Mitchell said. "We have a block of seats for the game up there and decided to make it a party all the way, going and coming.

"People will know where we're from, and who we're for," Rev. Mitchell continued. "We're going to spend the good part of Friday afternoon decorating the bus so that there'll be no mistake about that."

$2,500 Refunded To Sponsors of Port Dedication Program

A 20 per cent refund to sponsors who contributed toward the financing of the dedication ceremonies at Mansfield's new airport last July was announced today by Paul M. Eliot, chairman of the finance committee.

In announcing the $2,500 refund to the 276 sponsors, Eliot said it was "one of the most unusual actions ever taken by a finance committee of this nature."

A financial statement of receipts and disbursements of the finance committee showed contributions totalled $12,250, while other income amounted to $3,712. Total expenses were $13,214, leaving a cash balance of $2,748.

After the 20 per cent refund, $240 was transferred to the Chamber of Commerce as a contingency fund to pay a few outstanding bills, Eliot said.

The two-day dedication program of Mansfield's $2,000,000 airport attracted nation-wide attention.

BOARD HEARS OBJECTIONS TO VETS' PROJECT

Tentative Choice of Bowers Avenue Property Brings Complaints, Report.

New obstacle for Richland county's emergency housing project for veterans arose today with the voicing of protests over locating the units on the county children's home property off Bowers avenue.

The county commissioners, who had been considering the Bowers avenue site for the units, said they received complaints from residents in the area who were reported as not wanting the veterans in the neighborhood.

Commissioners said they also had received the first request to build some of the units outside Mansfield. Commissioner John W. Selby said a Shiloh resident, whose name he did not have, asked that consideration be given for locating a certain percentage of the units in that village.

The commissioners had assumed that communities other than Mansfield were not interested in the project since no one had asked to share in the county project.

A third consideration which had not previously been brought into the open is that of allocating part of the housing units for the colored population of Mansfield. Selby said thought had been given to allocating about eight per cent of the units to colored veterans. The eight per cent figure corresponds roughly to the ratio of colored to white population in Mansfield.

Amvets Meet.

Meanwhile, the executive committee of the Robert P. Spreng Amvet post, which had requested the commissioners to speed up the project, is to hold a special meeting to discuss the project at 8 p. m. today in the Memorial building.

In calling the meeting, Charles Boughton, first vice commander of the Amvet post, said that he felt there were factors in the county project that needed the attention of his committee.

The Bowers avenue site has already been tentatively approved by the county engineer in regard to feasibility of connecting the proposed homes to utility lines.

The commissioners have $64,149 in state funds to finance the project.

ARSONIST'S FIRE KILLS 3 SEAMEN

BALTIMORE—(AP)—Three seamen were burned to death in a fire which swept a waterfront rooming house early today and Battalion Chief Thomas Heagerty of the fire department said a home-made incendiary bomb apparently was tossed into the living room.

Police said the owner had received a warning a week ago.

A fourth man was critically burned, four others were hospitalized with third degree burns and one other was injured when he and another man jumped from a second floor window.

Chief Heagerty said a one-gallon can which apparently had contained gasoline was found in the living room debri.

Patrolman Bernard E. Thomas said he was standing at a nearby intersection when he heard the large plate glass window in the front of the building crash.

At the same time, Thomas said, he saw a man walking away from the building. He got into a car, which sped away.

Jesse Rodriguez, owner of the house, told police he had been acting as an agent for a Central-American steamship line. Police quoted him as aying an 18-inch monkey wrench with a note attached was hurled through the same window a week ago. The note, as released at a district police station, said:

"Stop rooming finks in your house. This is your final warning."

At Johns Hopkins hospital the three dead were identified as Manuel Balbero, Marco Tilio Espinoza and Paul Santanas. Espinoza was identified as a Honduran and the other two men as Spaniards.

FRANKLIN TOPS GOAL

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Columbus and Franklin county residents contributed $43,385 more than the $1,088,000 goal in their community chest campaign, Chairman Ben F. Hadley reported today.

Civic Pride Turns Judge Into 'Softie'

PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP)—Motorist Ernest Thompson can thank the civic loyalty of Judge Seabrook for saving him from a traffic fine.

After a week of dark days and heavy storms, Thompson said, "the sun was so bright I failed to see the traffic signal change."

Said the judge: "Your excuse shows that Oregon is not always filled with rain in the fall, and for the publicity our state will get the fine will be $5—suspended."

PURDY CHARGES M'GREGOR PUTS POLITICS FIRST

Dems Stage Rally in City; Lausche to Speak Here This Afternoon.

Wesley W. Purdy, Democratic candidate for 17th district congressman, charged last night that his Republican opponent, Congressman J. Harry McGregor, placed national welfare and defense "beneath the party line."

Purdy was one of three speakers who addressed a Democratic rally at the John Simpson junior high school. Other speakers were Timothy S. Hogan, candidate for attorney general, and Harry M. Bowman, Mansfield, who is running for county representative in the state legislature.

In another Democratic rally, Gov. Frank J. Lausche and local standard bearers were scheduled to appear at a rally at the Mansfield-Leland at 3 p. m. today.

Purdy, a Mansfield contractor, seeking a congressional seat also accused his opponent with "misrepresentation" in soliciting the votes of ex-servicemen.

He said that although McGregor claimed that he was instrumental in the passage of the bill giving terminal leave pay to enlisted men, "actually my oponent was not present when the bill was passed in the house and, as shown by the Congressional Record, did not vote on the measure."

Purdy asserted that he "holds no obeisance to party bosses," and

Kiddies Ring Door Bells To Get 'Goodies'

An army of masked "midgets" spearheaded the march of the ghosts and goblins last night, invading Mansfield's front porches, seeking a bounty of apples and candy.

Hardly a home was missed as the youngsters, dressed in fantastic costumes, kept up the tradition of "Beggars' Night." From early evening until almost midnight, door bells rang and a chorus of "Beggars' Night!" brought generous hand-outs of goodies.

One housewife, who vowed her house was "marked" by the little beggars, was almost ready to refuse any more requests when the door bell rang again. A little boy, dressed as a ragged tramp and carrying a big sack, said he was collecting apples.

The woman couldn't refuse. Giving him another apple, she asked to look at his collection, which turned out to be almost five pounds of fruit.

"What are you going to do with all those apples?" the woman asked.

"Well, the rest of my gang isn't doing so good tonight, so I've got to collect for them," came the childish reply.

BULLETIN

Phyllis Schluter, nine-year-old student at Western Avenue school, was struck by an automobile at noon today while riding on her bicycle on Park avenue west near Hoffman avenue. She was believed seriously injured. J. M. Clark, principal of the school, could not identify the motorist driving the car. The child was taken to General hospital in an ambulance. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schluter, 36 Hoffman avenue.

RED PROPOSAL PUT ON AGENDA BY COMMITTEE

Suggestion For Disarmament Study By Assembly Wins Unanimous Support.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Soviet Russia's proposals for world arms reduction were assured a full airing in the United Nations assembly when the 14-nation general committee decided today to include the disarmament question in the assembly's agenda.

The committee agreed unanimously to send the armaments issue to the 51-nation assembly and to have it referred immediately to the assembly's political committee.

The proposal to put the question on the agenda was offered by British delegate Philip J. Noel-Baker as soon as the general (steering) committee met at 10 a. m. (EST).

* * *

Vishinsky Accepts.

"I accept the proposal of the representative of the United Kingdom," said Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

No other delegates spoke on the question.

Committee action on the arms issue was confined to the Soviet proposals, but it was taken for granted that once they came up the debate would embrace all arms proposals including demands by the United States that adequate inspection and enforcement measures be adopted along with any limitation action.

These safeguards were expected to provide the issue over which the major powers would clash when the debate finally started.

* * *

U. S. Wants Safeguards.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov seeks to reduce arms and outlaw atomic weapons by agreement, but Warren R. Austin, chief of the U. S. delegation, declared last night that the United Nations must go beyond that to guard against secret armament.

Russia to date has persistently rejected inspection proposals. The argument thus boils down to the basic issue involved in the prolonged Russian-American disagreement over atomic energy control.

A clash also was expected to develop, possibly in assembly debate tomorrow, over reports on the number of troops the great powers have in foreign countries—despite the fact that Molotov and Austin both said such reports ought to be made.

Another clash, reflecting the split between Russia and the west, appeared to be in the making over complaints filed against Britain and Greece last night by President Enver Hoxha of Albania. He accused four British warships, one of which was afire, of violating "the integrity of our country" Oct. 22 said British planes violated the Albanian borders Oct. 23, and accused the Greeks of creating border incidents.

TEACHER TURNS GUN ON PUPILS

DRY RIDGE, Ky.—(U.P.)—High school teacher T. W. Skinner, 55, was held in Grant county jail here today on charges of shooting with intent to kill three of his pupils who were playing a Halloween prank at his home.

Charles Howe, jr., 18, was reported in serious condition at his home. He received 54 buckshot wounds in the shoulders, face and back of his head.

Harry Lee Elliott, 16, suffered 12 wounds in the face and head and Elwood Burns, 12, had wounds in the leg and ankle, but neither were seriously injured.

Sheriff Lawrence Caldwell said he was told that when a group of 10 to 15 boys went to the teacher's home early in the evening, he invited them in.

According to the sheriff, they returned later and Skinner came out with a shotgun which he fired over their heads. At about 11 p. m., they again returned to the house and placed one of Skinner's beehives on his front porch.

They then "tick-tacked" his window again, and the teacher came out of his home and fired into the crowd, the sheriff said.

VELVET'S BEST FOR BAKING... YOU SHOULD HEAR MY FAMILY TELL IT
—says Mrs. David Williams

Mrs. David Williams, 3063 E. Grand Blvd., Detroit, says: "Whether it's making cakes or baking pies, it's just wonderful the way Velvet helps them to come out right." Mrs. Williams is one of the many enthusiastic women who help give Velvet its leadership.

Try a Velvet JELLY ROLL

3 eggs
1 cup sugar
¼ cup cold water
1 cup Velvet Cake Flour
1 tsp. baking powder
¼ tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla
Jam or marmalade
Maraschino cherries
Cream icing (if desired)

METHOD

Beat eggs until light. Add the sugar gradually and continue to beat until light and fluffy. Add the water. Sift dry ingredients together and add gradually to the egg mixture, folding in carefully. Add the vanilla. Grease jelly roll pan (12" x 15"), place waxed paper on bottom and grease again. Spread batter on this and bake in a moderately hot oven (375° F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Turn out at once on a tea towel and remove waxed paper. Spread with desired jelly or jam and roll up. Then wrap tightly with a tea towel. When cool, remove the towel and ice with cream icing and garnish with Maraschino cherries or roll jelly roll in powdered sugar.

WHERE VELVET IS BEST KNOWN

Women Buy More VELVET Than Any Other Cake Flour

Actual survey shows Velvet ahead of all other cake flours

Yes—ma'am—it's true. An amazing independent survey actually showed that where Velvet is best known women buy more Velvet than any other cake flour.

There's a reason for this. They say they get the best results when they use Velvet. The tenderest, flakiest pastry—the fluffiest, lightest cakes—that's what every woman wants, and Henkel's Velvet Cake Flour can help you to get them.

Velvet is such a wonderful flour because its quality is carefully controlled. It's uniform—every bag just the way it should be.

Just try this great flour and see if you don't join all the other good cooks who say, "Velvet's tops."

VALUABLE PREMIUMS

OHIO GOVERNOR FIGHT TO DRAW HEAVY BALLOT

Early Estimates on Total Vote Revised Upward as Election Date Nears.

COLUMBUS — (U.P.) — The last-minute bitter fight for the governorship and reportedly huge campaign expenditures may bring out 2,500,000 Ohioans to vote in next Tuesday's election.

Ohio has almost two and a half million potential voters including a large number of discharged servicemen, the secretary of state's office indicated today.

Estimates Grow.

Earlier estimates set the expected general election vote at close to two million but today's revisal sent the figure spiraling upward.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche, Democrat incumbent, and his Republican opponent Thomas J. Herbert, both of Cleveland, are scheduled to take part in a last-minute battle in northern Ohio climaxed with a joint appearance before the Cleveland City club on Saturday.

Herbert has assailed the Democratic governor as part of a "New Deal organization" which should be eliminated while Lausche is seeking support on his record as governor.

If the hot gubernatorial campaign and extensive Republican organization work have their normal effect upon the voters, the state may see a repeat of the 1938 off-year election when 2,446,429 voters turned out.

It was in 1938 that John W. Bricker, present candidate for U S. senator, won his first term as governor in a race against Cincinnati's Charles Sawyer and the then growing CIO-PAC.

Further support of the estimate is indicated in the 1942 off-year election figures. That year 1,829,827 votes were cast although only 164,000 of the eligible 1,000,000 servicemen voted absentee ballots.

The secretary of state's office reported a large veterans registration wave when registration closed early this month Only a small soldier vote is expected this year, however, since replacement troops generally are not of voting age.

Governor Lausche has charged that the Republican party is spending "at least $1,000,000" in an attempt to defeat him for re-election.

In addition to expenditures by state candidates, both Republican and national administrations are reported pouring money into congressional contests in Ohio this year.

IN MEMORIAM of Hattie Dickerson, who died Oct. 31, 1945.

No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those who lost can tell
Of grief we bear in silence
For the one we loved so well.

Friends may think we have forgot you
When they see us smile:
Little do they know our sorrow
That is hid behind a smile.

Words can't tell how we miss you,
How we miss your smiling face:
But you left us to remember,
None on earth can take your place.

—By Thornton W. Burgess

MRS. JERRY IS INDIGNANT

What a lot of trouble and sorrow and cause for regret would be avoided if only everybody would heed Old Mother Nature's advice. And a hint, a suggestion, can be just as bad, sometimes worse, than a statement that isn't true.

There was mystery at the Smiling Pool. Where there is mystery you are likely to find suspicion. A Clam had disappeared from the bank of the Smiling Pool. Jerry Muskrat had put two Clams there for jolly, bright Mr. Sun to open for him. He could have opened those Clams himself, but it was much easier to have Mr. Sun do it. Getting Mr. Sun to open Clams for them is an old trick of the Muskrat family. It saves work and bother and teeth. Having dug those Clams from the bottom of the Smiling Pool and put them on the shore where Mr. Sun would shine on them, Jerry had gone about the work of making his house in the water ready for cold weather. Now there was but one there.

Right away Jerry had suspected Peter Rabbit, for Peter had been very curious about those Clams, and Peter was the only one whom he had seen near them. Peter was indignant. He doesn't eat Clams. He couldn't open one if he tried. He knew no more about what had happened to that Clam than did Jerry. He said so. He suggested that another Muskrat had taken it, and asked if Jerry had asked Mrs Jerry about it. Mrs. Jerry appeared just in time to overhear him.

"Peter thinks you took one of my Clams," squeaked Jerry.

"I didn't say that," cried Peter. "I just asked if you had asked her about it."

"That amounts to the same thing as saying that I took that Clam, and I would have you to know that I did nothing of the kind," cried Mrs. Jerry, indignantly, and it seemed to Peter that her voice was even more squeaky than usual.

"I just thought you might have" said Peter lamely.

"When you talk about others say what you know, not what you think may be," retorted Mrs. Jerry sharply.

"It was only because it seems to me that whoever took it must have been a Muskrat," said Peter, trying to excuse himself in the eyes of Mrs. Jerry.

"Why must it have been a Muskrat?" demanded Jerry.

"Because you Muskrats are the only ones who eat Clams," replied Peter.

"Who says so?" snapped Mrs. Jerry. She was still indignant.

"Why—why—I don't know that anybody says so. I just don't know of anybody who does. Do you?" stammered Peter.

"Your tongue is loose. You say a thing is so when you don't know it is so. That is the trouble with loose tongues. They make a lot of trouble," squeaked Jerry. "Now let me tell you something."

"What?" asked Peter.

"No other Muskrats have been near those Clams, yet one of them is missing. It couldn't go off by itself. You know that as well as I do. So some one has taken it. And that some one wasn't a Muskrat," declared Jerry.

"How do you know?" Peter wanted to know.

"My nose tells me that. There is no scent of any other Muskrat anywhere around that place," retorted Jerry.

"And that includes me," squeaked Mrs. Jerry.

"It does, my dear. There is my own scent and that of one other person," declared Jerry.

"Who?" asked Peter eagerly.

"You ought to know," squeaked Jerry.

Of course Peter did know, but he didn't admit it.

The next story: "The Feather."

NUTTY DOINGS

CLEVELAND—(U.P.)— Margaret Gray, a librarian, hailed a bus. She begged driver Earl Cullar to wait while she ran into a nearby shop for a package of nuts she had left. "Now," said Cullar, when Miss Gray returned, "treat the passengers who waited." And she did.

STEEL SHARES GAIN BACKING

Turnover slowed after a moderately active opening as suspension of trading in the nation's major cotton futures markets inspired caution in some quarters. Toward mid-day the trend was still uncertain.

Demand for steels stemmed from third quarter earnings reports of several leading companies, including U. S. Steel and Jones & Laughlin, which showed income as good or better than expected.

Fraction to a point or so ahead were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Youngstown Sheet, Douglas Aircraft, Consolidated Edison, and General Electric.

Bonds moved narrowly.

Rusk said that a prel... examination of existing wat... and sewer lines showed that they would have to be extended about 200 feet to connect with the area where commissioners are considering placing the home units.

The site, a 900-by-100-foot plot, is on county childrens home property not far from another area leased by the commissioners to the city for one of its emergency housing projects

The commissioners yesterday tentatively selected the site on condition that extension of the utility lines would not present too great an obstacle

It had been suggested that the county turn the management of the project over to the city. Rusk said Raymond Friday, secretary of the Mansfield Metropolitan Housing authority, told him that the city agency might be able to use part of its $15,000 site preparation fund on the county project if such action were taken, thus allowing more of the county money to be spent on actual housing units

BALLOT FIGHT NEARS CLIMAX IN CLEVELAND

Top Candidates Concentrate Efforts in Area Holding Seventh of Ohio Vote.

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Campaigning in the top Ohio election contests — governor and U. S. senator—was concentrated today in Cleveland where about one-seventh of the state's voters will ballot next Tuesday.

The political caravan brought its road show here last night for a final stand with Gov. Frank J. Lausche and Sen. James W. Huffman sharing rally platforms to plead the Democratic cause and Republican Thomas J. Herbert and John W. Bricker attacking the national and state administration of the Democratic party.

All were to continue their campaigning here with speeches today and tonight.

* * *

Raps Sugar Muddle.

Bricker, candidate for U. S. senate, pegged an onslaught on the New Deal on a sugar scarcity which he claimed was "the worst in our history."

"Thousands of housewives have been unable to redeem sugar coupon 9 and 10 which became good in March and July because grocers are out of sugar," Bricker declared, so "the OPA decided to extend them."

"The whole sorry muddle is but another manifestation of bureaucratic planning and fuzzy thinking."

Bricker contended that "the bureaucrats in Washington reduced sugar production in the past two years" and "approved diversion of 1,730,000 tons of American-owned sugar for export."

* * *

Huffman Hits Back.

Bricker's opponent, Senator Huffman, answered the Republican nominee's assertion of Tuesday that the New Deal had disappointed World War II veterans by declaring that the Democratic party "has not been outdone by any in the history of the United States in fairness to veterans."

In the gubernatorial battle, between a Republican native son and a former Democratic mayor of Cleveland, candidates' speeches stuck to state issues.

Republican Nominee Herbert asked Governor Lausche to "explain why the additional benefits authorized by congress and the Ohio legislature in August" for old age pensioners "have been delayed until one week before election."

* * *

Cites Surplus.

Herbert claimed that "during his 22 months in office the average payment to pensioners was $32 a month" while the governor accumulated a surplus of $2,000,000 in the pension fund and pensioners' cost of living mounted.

Herbert also maintained

Herbert also charged Lausche's administration failed to sponsor a program for care of tubercular patients.

In another part of the city Lausche at the same time was declaring that it was "a matter of great pride for the administration and for the citizens of Ohio" that his administration was "the first in many years to interest itself in tuberculosis."

The governor said Ohio was in the best financial condition of its history and would be able to make "substantial progress" in the next two years in increasing aid to local governments, especially schools; raising state employes' pay to meet increased living costs, and financing carrying charges on a bonus for World War II veterans.

CLEARING PROMISED GRID FANS TONIGHT

Clearing skies and cooler temperatures were promised today by the U. S. Weather Bureau for football fans planning to attend the Johnny Appleseed - Simpson junior high school football championship game at 8 p. m. in Senior high stadium.

Tomorrow is expected to be partly cloudy and cool.

The clear and balmy weather which Mansfielders have been enjoying came to an abrupt end this morning as residents awoke to grey skies and a cold drizzle.

The thermometer hit a high of 75 degrees at Hayesville yesterday, while the low last night was 50. Only .03 inches of rain fell in the 24-hour period up to 8 a. m. today.

CPA OK'S EXPANSION

WASHINGTON —(UP)— The civilian production administration today approved a $3,000,000 power plant expansion project at Dayton, O.

Centenary To Open Tonight

The four-day celebration of the centennial of St. Peter's Catholic church will begin officially tonight at 7:30 when Msgr. R. C. Goebel, pastor of the church, blesses the articles to be used in tomorrow's consecration of the altars.

Preceded by special Masses and worship during the past several weeks, tonight's service will include four blessings by Msgr. Goebel.

First he will bless the Gregorian water to be sprinkled on the three altars tomorrow. The incense to be used in Friday's consecration of altars and the cement that will seal the small tomb where church relics are to be placed, also will be specially blessed.

The fourth group of articles to be given the special blessings by Msgr. Goebel will be the altar cloths. These also will be used in the service tomorrow morning.

* * *

PASTOR TO EXPLAIN SIGNIFICANCE OF EACH.

The blessings will be accompanied by explanatory comment by the pastor, who will tell of the special significance of each step.

The service tonight will be brief, lasting only about 45 minutes.

For tomorrow morning's consecration, given once to each altar of a Catholic church, The Most Rev. Karl J. Alter, Bishop of Toledo, will preside.

He will consecrate the main altar. The other two altars will be consecrated by Msgr. Goebel and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. R. T. Kinnane, pastor of St. Mary's church in Tiffin.

Rev. R. V. O'Conner of Toledo, pastor of the Good Shepherd church, will be the narrator. It is expected that 60 visiting priests will attend the service.

Friday's special service will start at 10:30 a. m.

LEWIS HOLDING ODDS IN FIGHT

WASHINGTON —(AP) —John L. Lewis appeared certain today to emerge from his fight with the government a bigger winner than ever.

With Lewis still holding the whip hand—backed by the tacit but nonetheless real threat of another strike by his 400,000 soft coal miners—all signs point to eventual new government concessions in the negotiations scheduled to start tomorrow.

Whether a walkout will intervene remains to be seen, but here are the signposts that say the United Mine Workers' chief in the end will get at least part of what he wants.

Lewis apparently has won the first round—getting the government to talk higher wages with him.

The government is anxious to avert a coal strike in November, with winter's chill approaching. And the administration is well aware of what would happen under the miners' historic no-contract no-work stand should Lewis cancel the agreement on schedule, Nov. 20.

In other words, Lewis has indicated clearly that a strike for higher pay may occur—even during government operation—and the government has just as clearly indicated it wants to avoid one. The answer seems certain, therefore, to be: pay concessions for the miners.

Ohio Drinkers To Get Bonus

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Ohio drinkers were granted a one-bottle bonus of blended whisky today by the state liquor control department for the next ration period beginning Monday, Nov. 4. The period ends Saturday, Nov. 16.

The bonus must be purchased at the same time the regular unit is taken, A. I. Balmert, assistant liquor director, said.

Tavern operators also will share in the increased supply, getting two cases of blended whisky in addition to the normal 90 per cent of their total weekly bottle purchases during the first half of 1942.

Balmert said a 16 per cent increase in grain supply to distillers probably would begin affecting the supply of whisky sent the state in November.

ADDED ATTRACTIONS—These John Simpson and Johnny Appleseed drum majors and majorettes will perform during the half of the seventh annual grid clash between the Bulldogs and pioneers tonight at 8 in the Senior high stadium with the junior high school championships at stake. Last year's game was played before 6,000 fans. The John Simpson pupils at top (left to right) are Virginia Bowie, Carolee Hunter, Janice Cotton, and Joan Hallibrin, with the Bulldogs' head drum majorette, Shirley Lay at the top of the pyramid and Drum Major Jim Haring in front. Appleseed pupils (below) are Junior Wynn, drum major; Diance French, head drum majorette, and Shirley Tucker, Lawanda Holzworth, Marilyn Brown, Arlene Locke, Sue Ann Schwab, Jackie Fisher, Diana Hoffman and Beverly Mertler.—(News-Journal staff photos).

Labor Disputes Cost 98,224,000 Man-Days In 9 Months This Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Strike idleness during the first nine months of 1946 exceeded by nearly three times the working time similarly lost in all of 1945, the previous record year.

Government figures which showed this today placed at 98,225,000 the number of man-days lost due to management-labor disputes during the January - through - September period.

For all of last year the total was 38,025,000. Earlier peaks were 28,425,000 in 1937; 26,219,000 in 1927 and 23,048,000 in 1941.

The bureau of labor statistics, which compiled the figures, said the number of strikes and lockouts for the first nine months of this year totaled 3,575, compared with 3,784 for all of 1945.

Strikes Bitter.

The reason for the big jump in man days lost, officials said, is that postwar strikes have been bitter and for keeps, hence extended for longer periods. During the war walkouts generally were small, spontaneous and quickly settled.

BLS didn't begin keeping its present type of strike statistics until 1927, so no comparison is possible between the postwar year 1946 and the postwar year 1919 on the basis of man days of work lost.

However, in 1919, BLS says there were 4,160,000 workers involved in strikes. The figure this year may surpass that mark because for the first nine months of 1946 the total involved was 3,805,000.

This is a difference of only 355,000 struck workers but there were 535,000 on strike for the single month of September, principally due to the maritime and New York trucking strikes, now largely settled.

The BLS statistics show how strikes became more severe immediately after the war ended. Three-fourth of all the 38,025,000 man-days idle in 1945 came in the months following V-J day.

Thereafter the long and widespread steel, auto, coal and electric workers' strikes began to pile up this year's big idleness total. February was the record month with 21,500,000 man-days lost.

For September, the last month recorded, the figure was 5,000,000. By way of comparison there were only 3,317,000 man-days lost because of strikes in the entire year of 1930.

Youth Explains Death Mystery

LOUISVILLE, Ky. —(U.P.)— Jefferson county police today closed the case of Ronnie Tritt, the 14-year-old Boy Scout whose mysterious death by hanging baffled them for nearly two months.

Police said James Marvin Gray, 15, playmate of young Tritt, "confessed" he saw Ronnie fall from a tree, hanging himself accidentally with a rope he had tied around his neck during play.

CHARTER BUS TO FOLLOW TEAM

The Luther League of the First Lutheran church has chartered a bus to take 37 members of the league to the Mansfield-Toledo Waite football game Friday night in Toledo, Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell of the church said today.

The busload of young people will supplement the hundreds of other Mansfield fans who will make the trip on the special Mansfield Tire train and in their own cars.

"We're Tyger rooters one and all here in the league," Rev. Mitchell said. "We have a block of seats for the game up there and decided to make it a party all the way, going and coming.

"People will know where we're from, and who we're for," Rev. Mitchell continued. "We're going to spend the good part of Friday afternoon decorating the bus so that there'll be no mistake about that."

$2,500 Refunded To Sponsors of Port Dedication Program

A 20 per cent refund to sponsors who contributed toward the financing of the dedication ceremonies at Mansfield's new airport last July was announced today by Paul M. Eliot, chairman of the finance committee.

In announcing the $2,500 refund to the 276 sponsors, Eliot said it was "one of the most unusual actions ever taken by a finance committee of this nature."

A financial statement of receipts and disbursements of the finance committee showed contributions totalled $12,250, while other income amounted to $3,712. Total expenses were $13,214, leaving a cash balance of $2,748.

After the 20 per cent refund, $240 was transferred to the Chamber of Commerce as a contingency fund to pay a few outstanding bills, Eliot said.

The two-day dedication program of Mansfield's $2,000,000 airport attracted nation-wide attention.

BOARD HEARS OBJECTIONS TO VETS' PROJECT

Tentative Choice of Bowers Avenue Property Brings Complaints, Report.

New obstacle for Richland county's emergency housing project for veterans arose today with the voicing of protests over locating the units on the county children's home property off Bowers avenue.

The county commissioners, who had been considering the Bowers avenue site for the units, said they received complaints from residents in the area who were reported as not wanting the veterans in the neighborhood.

Commissioners said they also had received the first request to build some of the units outside Mansfield. Commissioner John W. Selby said a Shiloh resident, whose name he did not have, asked that consideration be given for locating a certain percentage of the units in that village.

The commissioners had assumed that communities other than Mansfield were not interested in the project since no one had asked to share in the county project.

A third consideration which had not previously been brought into the open is that of allocating part of the housing units for the colored population of Mansfield. Selby said thought had been given to allocating about eight per cent of the units to colored veterans. The eight per cent figure corresponds roughly to the ratio of colored to white population in Mansfield.

Amvets Meet.

Meanwhile, the executive committee of the Robert P. Spreng Amvet post, which had requested the commissioners to speed up the project, is to hold a special meeting to discuss the project at 8 p. m. today in the Memorial building.

In calling the meeting, Charles Boughton, first vice commander of the Amvet post ,said that he felt there were factors in the county project that needed the attention of his committee.

The Bowers avenue site has already been tentatively approved by the county engineer in regard to feasibility of connecting the proposed homes to utility lines.

The commissioners have $64,149 in state funds to finance the project.

ARSONIST'S FIRE KILLS 3 SEAMEN

BALTIMORE—(AP)—Three seamen were burned to death in a fire which swept a waterfront rooming house early today and Battalion Chief Thomas Heagerty of the fire department said a home-made incendiary bomb apparently was tossed into the living room.

Police said the owner had received a warning a week ago.

A fourth man was critically burned, four others were hospitalized with third degree burns and one other was injured when he and another man jumped from a second floor window.

Chief Heagerty said a one-gallon can which apparently had contained gasoline was found in the living room debri.

Patrolman Bernard E. Thomas said he was standing at a nearby intersection when he heard the large plate glass window in the front of the building crash.

At the same time, Thomas said, he saw a man walking away from the building. He got into a car, which sped away.

Jesse Rodriguez, owner of the house, told police he had been acting as an agent for a Central-American steamship line. Police quoted him as aying an 18-inch monkey wrench with a note attached was hurled through the same window a week ago. The note, as released at a district police station, said:

"Stop rooming finks in your house. This is your final warning."

At Johns Hopkins hospital the three dead were identified as Manuel Balbero, Marco Tilio Espinoza and Paul Santanas. Espinoza was identified as a Honduran and the other two men as Spaniards.

FRANKLIN TOPS GOAL

COLUMBUS —(AP)— Columbus and Franklin county residents contributed $43,385 more than the $1,088,000 goal in their community chest campaign, Chairman Ben F. Hadley reported today.

Civic Pride Turns Judge Into 'Softie'

PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP)—Motorist Ernest Thompson can thank the civic loyalty of Judge Seabrook for saving him from a traffic fine.

After a week of dark days and heavy storms, Thompson said, "the sun was so bright I failed to see the traffic signal change."

Said the judge: "Your excuse shows that Oregon is not always filled with rain in the fall, and for the publicity our state will get the fine will be $5—suspended."

PURDY CHARGES M'GREGOR PUTS POLITICS FIRST

Dems Stage Rally in City; Lausche to Speak Here This Afternoon.

Wesley W. Purdy, Democratic candidate for 17th district congressman, charged last night that his Republican opponent, Congressman J. Harry McGregor, placed national welfare and defense "beneath the party line."

Purdy was one of three speakers who addressed a Democratic rally at the John Simpson junior high school. Other speakers were Timothy S. Hogan, candidate for attorney general, and Harry M. Bowman, Mansfield, who is running for county representative in the state legislature.

In another Democratic rally, Gov. Frank J. Lausche and local standard bearers were scheduled to appear at a rally at the Mansfield-Leland at 3 p. m. today.

Purdy, a Mansfield contractor, seeking a congressional seat also accused his opponent with "misrepresentation" in soliciting the votes of ex-servicemen.

He said that although McGregor claimed that he was instrumental in the passage of the bill giving terminal leave pay to enlisted men, "actually my oponent was not present when the bill was passed in the house and, as shown by the Congressional Record, did not vote on the measure."

Purdy asserted that he "holds no obeisance to party bosses," and

Kiddies Ring Door Bells To Get 'Goodies'

An army of masked "midgets" spearheaded the march of the ghosts and goblins last night, invading Mansfield's front porches, seeking a bounty of apples and candy.

Hardly a home was mised as the youngsters, dressed in fantastic costumes, kept up the tradition of "Beggars' Night." From early evening until almost midnight, door bells rang and a chorus of "Beggars' Night!" brought generous hand-uts of goodies.

One housewife, who vowed her house was "marked" by the little beggars, was almost ready to refuse any more requests when the door bell rang again. A little boy, dressed as a ragged tramp and carrying a big sack, said he was collecting apples.

The woman couldn't refuse. Giving him another apple, she asked to look at his collection which turned out to be almost five pounds of fruit.

"What are you going to do with all those apples?" the woman asked.

"Well, the rest of my gang isn't doing so good tonight so I've got to collect for them," came the childish reply.

BULLETIN

Phyllis Schluter, nine-year-old student at Western Avenue school, was struck by an automobile at noon today while riding on her bicycle on Park avenue west near Hoffman avenue. She was believed seriously injured. J. M. Clark, principal of the school, could not identify the motorist driving the car. The child was taken to General hospital in an ambulance. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schluter, 36 Hoffman avenue.

RED PROPOSAL PUT ON AGENDA BY COMMITTEE

Suggestion For Disarmament Study By Assembly Wins Unanimous Support.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Soviet Russia's proposals for world arms reduction were assured a full airing in the United Nations assembly when the 14-nation general committee decided today to include the disarmament question in the assembly's agenda.

The committee agreed unanimously to send the armaments issue to the 51-nation assembly and to have it referred immediately to the assembly's political committee.

The proposal to put the question on the agenda was offered by British delegate Philip J. Noel-Baker as soon as the general (steering) committee met at 10 a. m. (EST).

* * *

Vishinsky Accepts.

"I accept the proposal of the representative of the United Kingdom," said Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

No other delegates spoke on the question.

Committee action on the arms issue was confined to the Soviet proposals, but it was taken for granted that once they came up the debate would embrace all arms proposals including demands by the United States that adequate inspection and enforcement measures be adopted along with any limitation action.

These safeguards were expected to provide the issue over which the major powers would clash when the debate finally started.

* * *

U. S. Wants Safeguards.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov seeks to reduce arms and outlaw atomic weapons by agreement, but Warren R. Austin, chief of the U. S. delegation, declared last night that the United Nations must go beyond that to guard against secret armament.

Russia to date has persistently rejected inspection proposals. The argument thus boils down to the basic issue involved in the prolonged Russian-American disagreement over atomic energy control.

A clash also was expected to develop, possibly in assembly debate tomorrow, over reports on the number of troops the great powers have in foreign countries—despite the fact that Molotov and Austin both said such reports ought to be made.

Another clash, reflecting the split between Russia and the west, appeared to be in the making over complaints filed against Britain and Greece last night by President Enver Hoxha of Albania. He accused four British warships, one of which was afire, of violating "the integrity of our country" Oct. 22; said British planes violated the Albanian borders Oct. 23, and accused the Greeks of creating border incidents.

TEACHER TURNS GUN ON PUPILS

DRY RIDGE, Ky.—(U.P.)—High school teacher T. W. Skinner, 55, was held in Grant county jail here today on charges of shooting with intent to kill three of his pupils who were playing a Halloween prank at his home.

Charles Howe, jr., 18, was reported in serious condition at his home. He received 54 buckshot wounds in the shoulders, face and back of his head.

Harry Lee Elliott, 16, suffered 12 wounds in the face and head and Elwood Burns, 12, had wounds in the leg and ankle, but neither were seriously injured.

Sheriff Lawrence Caldwell said he was told that when a group of 10 to 15 boys went to the teacher's home early in the evening, he invited them in.

According to the sheriff, they returned later and Skinner came out with a shotgun which he fired over their heads. At about 11 p. m., they again returned to the house and placed one of Skinner's beehives on his front porch.

They then "tick-tacked" his window again, and the teacher came out of his home and fired into the crowd, the sheriff said.

PRISONERS LEAVING

OTTAWA —(INS)— A final group of 4,000 German prisoners of war got the bad news today. They will be returned to their homeland by Christmas. The group is the last of 35,000 Germans held in Canadian prison camps during the war. Most of the prisoners want to remain in Canada.

HAVE YOU HAD ENOUGH?

THIS is one of those election years which try men's souls. Everywhere about us, notably in Europe, we see the results of totalitarianism, whether Fascism or Communism, the difference being a quibble.

In our own country, the United States, some thought for a long time that it could not happen. But it is happening, slowly but surely, and it will succeed unless the trend is definitely and abruptly arrested. A Communist fifth column in the United States is scheming by ever political device known to revolutionists to bring about a chaos in the economy of the land which could be corrected only by a form of totalitarianism. This force must be stopped.

The Democratic party is hopelessly enmeshed with New Dealism, P.A.C.-ism and other forms of leftism, inspired and guided to a large extent by the ideals of Communism, and all traveling distinctly in that direction. The anti-New Deal minority in the Democratic party is too small to be effective. Only the restoration of the Republican party to the control of governmental affairs can save the United States from becoming a complete socialized and regimented state.

For that reason it is urged this year, above all years, the voting of a straight Republican ticket. The victory must be decisive in order to be efficacious. From all sides Ohio is being looked upon as the tell-tale battleground of the nation.

Where Is Our Sugar?

According to the figures of the U. S. Department of Agriculture the DEMOCRATIC PARTY exported from the United States for the first six months of 1946 the sum of 261,420 tons or 343% more than exported in any other similar time.

THE DEMOCRATIC NEW DEALERS HAVE EXPORTED ENOUGH AMERICAN SUGAR IN 1946 TO GIVE EACH OF THE 37 MILLION AMERICAN FAMILIES AN ADDITIONAL 27 LBS.

placed himself on record as favoring expansion of social security and the "urgent need" for satisfactory settlement of labor disputes "for both sides."

Hogan, a Cincinati attorney, compared the present campaign with that of 1920, when, he said, Republicans promoted candidates "after conferring in smoke-filled rooms.'

The 37-year-old candidate for attorney general who is the son of a former attorney general, said he was "a New Deal Democrat, and proud of it."

He said the nation at this time was "materialistic" and thought only "of meat and money." The Republicans, he charged, were cynically taking advantage of this attitude.

Bowman Speaks.

Final speaker on the program was Harry M. Bowman, an employe at the Empire Steel corporation, who is running for the state legislature.

Bowman said the state should furnish "greater assistance for schools in smaller communities" and called for "adequate" old age pensions.

"State sales and excise taxes should be watched carefully," he said. "I'm opposed to any form of payroll taxes, which takes money out of the pockets of those who need it most."

George W. Biddle of the Democratic central committee acted as chairman. Approximately 40 persons attended the rally.

RURAL YOUTH MEET

COLUMBUS—(U.P.)—Ohio State University's extension service will sponsor the Ohio older rural youth conference, which opens its two-day meetings here tomorrow.

Fred J. Lauer Stricken At 88

Fred J. Lauer, 88, of 97 West Luther place, died Wednesday evening at Mansfield General hospital after a brief illness.

Mr. Lauer was born Sept. 19, 1858, in Mansfield and spent the greater part of his life here.

Surviving are his wife, Capitola C. Lauer; one daughter, Mrs. Thomas H. Tingley; two brothers, John and William, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, all of Mansfield.

Mr. Lauer was a member of the First Lutheran church and the Odd Fellows lodge No. 161.

The body is at the Wappner funeral home where services will be held Saturday at 1 p. m., in charge of Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell.

Burial will be at the Mansfield cemetery.

Truman Goes Home To Cast His Vote

WASHINGTON —(INS)— President Truman leaves for Independence, Mo., today on a strangely silent pre-election trip which the White House insists will be devoid of any speeches or public appearances.

Mr. Truman, traveling by special train, is going to his Missouri home to vote in the Nov. 5 elections. Present plans indicate that this action will be his only election contribution to the Democratic party of which he is the titular head.

SPEAKS FRIDAY: Rabbi Bertram W. Korn of Cincinnati, superintendent of the Temple Emanuel Sunday school, will speak at the annual group meeting of that congregation at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow. Also on the program is the election of officers and trustees for the coming year and the reading of the financial report. A discussion of building plans for the new temple to be located at Cook road and Lexington avenue is also planned.

ACTRESS RECOVERING

CARMEL, Calif —(AP)— Movie Star Esther Williams was recovering today from premature birth of a child she expected in February. The child was stillborn.

MAJOR SENTENCED FOR JEWEL THEFT

FRANKFURT, Germany—(AP)—Maj. David F. Watson was sentenced to three years imprisonment and dismissal from the U. S. army today upon his conviction on charges of conspiracy and receiving stolen property in connection with the $1,500,000 Kronberg castle jewel theft.

It was the second conviction in the case of the stolen Hesse family jewels. WAC Capt. Kathleen Nash Durant was sentenced earlier to five years imprisonment. Her husband and Watson's commanding officer, Col. Jack W. Durant, is awaiting trial.

Col. John Harlan Amen, Watson's attorney, had asked the U. S. military court for an acquittal on the contention that the Burlingame, Calif., officer "had no intent to steal."

Accidents Grow In Rural Traffic

CHICAGO—(UP)—City traffic deaths have been reduced, but the rural death toll still is soaring, the National Safety Council reported today.

The council said that rural traffic deaths in September were up 16 per cent over last January, while the city toll had been reduced 28 per cent. For the year, however, city deaths have risen six per cent over 1945, while the rural toll has mounted 48 per cent, the council said.

Navy Sets Quota of 4 Men In Area

A regular navy quota of four men from the Mansfield area for November has been received by the Mansfield Navy recruiting station, J. T. Daley, CCM, said today.

A naval medical examiner will be at the station, in the post office building, to examine candidates on Nov. 7 and 21; Daley said.

BOAT HITS MINE

HAVE YOU HAD ENOUGH?

THIS is one of those election years which try men's souls. Everywhere about us, notably in Europe, we see the results of totalitarianism, whether Fascism or Communism, the difference being a quibble.

In our own country, the United States, some thought for a long time that it could not happen. But it is happening, slowly but surely, and it will succeed unless the trend is definitely and abruptly arrested. A Communist fifth column in the United States is scheming by ever political device known to revolutionists to bring about a chaos in the economy of the land which could be corrected only by a form of totalitarianism. This force must be stopped.

The Democratic party is hopelessly enmeshed with New Dealism, P.A.C.-ism and other forms of leftism, inspired and guided to a large extent by the ideals of Communism, and all traveling distinctly in that direction. The anti-New Deal minority in the Democratic party is too small to be effective. Only the restoration of the Republican party to the control of governmental affairs can save the United States from becoming a complete socialized and regimented state.

For that reason it is urged this year, above all years, the voting of a straight Republican ticket. The victory must be decisive in order to be efficacious. From all sides Ohio is being looked upon as the tell-tale battleground of the nation.

placed himself on record as favoring expansion of social security and the "urgent need" for satisfactory settlement of labor disputes "for both sides."

Hogan, a Cincinati attorney, compared the present campaign with that of 1920, when, he said, Republicans promoted candidates "after conferring in smoke-filled rooms.'

The 37-year-old candidate for attorney general who is the son of a former attorney general, said he was "a New Deal Democrat, and proud of it."

He said the nation at this time was "materialistic" and thought only "of meat and money." The Republicans, he charged, were cynically taking advantage of this attitude.

Bowman Speaks.

Final speaker on the program was Harry M. Bowman, an employe at the Empire Steel corporation, who is running for the state legislature.

Bowman said the state should furnish "greater assistance for schools in smaller communities" and called for "adequate" old age pensions.

"State sales and excise taxes should be watched carefully," he said. "I'm opposed to any form of payroll taxes, which takes money out of the pockets of those who need it most."

George W. Biddle of the Democratic central committee acted as chairman. Approximately 40 persons attended the rally.

COLUMBUS—(U.P.)—Ohio State University's extension service will sponsor the Ohio older rural youth conference, which opens its two-day meetings here tomorrow.

Mr. Lauer was a member of the First Lutheran church and the Odd Fellows lodge No. 161.

The body is at the Wappner funeral home where services will be held Saturday at 1 p. m., in charge of Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell.

Burial will be at the Mansfield cemetery.

Truman Goes Home To Cast His Vote

WASHINGTON —(INS)— President Truman leaves for Independence, Mo., today on a strangely silent pre-election trip which the White House insists will be devoid of any speeches or public appearances.

Mr. Truman, traveling by special train, is going to his Missouri home to vote in the Nov. 5 elections. Present plans indicate that this action will be his only election contribution to the Democratic party of which he is the titular head.

SPEAKS FRIDAY: Rabbi Bertram W. Korn of Cincinnati, superintendent of the Temple Emanuel Sunday school, will speak at the annual group meeting of that congregation at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow. Also on the program is the election of officers and trustees for the coming year and the reading of the financial report. A discussion of building plans for the new temple to be located at Cook road and Lexington avenue is also planned.

MAJOR SENTENCED FOR JEWEL THEFT

FRANKFURT, Germany—(AP)—Maj. David F. Watson was sentenced to three years imprisonment and dismissal from the U. S. army today upon his conviction on charges of conspiracy and receiving stolen property in connection with the $1,500,000 Kronberg castle jewel theft.

It was the second conviction in the case of the stolen Hesse family jewels. WAC Capt. Kathleen Nash Durant was sentenced earlier to five years imprisonment. Her husband and Watson's commanding officer, Col. Jack W. Durant, is awaiting trial.

Col. John Harlan Amen, Watson's attorney, had asked the U. S. military court for an acquittal on the contention that the Burlingame, Calif., officer "had no intent to steal."

Accidents Grow In Rural Traffic

CHICAGO—(UP)—City traffic deaths have been reduced, but the rural death toll still is soaring, the National Safety Council reported today.

The council said that rural traffic deaths in September were up 16 per cent over last January, while the city toll had been reduced 28 per cent. For the year, however, city deaths have risen six per cent over 1945, while the rural toll has mounted 48 per cent, the council said.

Truman, Wheeler Ousted Rogge After Being Prompted By Lewis

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Inside fact about the firing of ace justice department prosecutor John Rogge was that he was ousted on direct orders from President Truman.

Indirectly also the orders came from Senator Burton Wheeler of Montana with reported off-stage promptings from John L. Lewis.

Rogge had discussed his Swarthmore speech in advance with Attorney General Tom Clark, and the latter knew all about the dynamite that was going to be exploded. He knew that various high-placed Americans whom the Nazis tried to use in 1940, including John L. Lewis and Senator Wheeler, would have their feet held to the fire. Furthermore, Attorney General Clark discussed the impending speech with at least one other member of the cabinet.

Two days passed after Rogge's Oct. 22 speech was delivered and nothing happened. There was no move inside the justice department to admonish him.

Then, on the second day, Oct. 24, Senator Wheeler called at the White House and had a two-hour conference with Truman. The two men are old friends. Wheeler is the only Democratic senator whom the president openly supported for renomination.

Furthermore, Wheeler is a close and intimate friend of John L. Lewis. When Wheeler seemed likely to be defeated for re-election in 1929, Lewis helped still the opposition of the Anaconda Copper company, which has been in Wheeler's camp ever since. They became even closer friends just before the war, when both vehemently opposed Roosevelt's war policies and when Mrs. Wheeler and Kathryn Lewis both served as members of the America First committee.

Following Truman's Oct. 24 conference with Wheeler, he summoned Attorney General Clark late that evening and ordered John Rogge fired. Clark issued the letter of dismissal at the unusual hour of midnight that night—on direct orders of the president.

Note—Rogge has had one of the best records in the justice department. As assistant attorney general in charge of the criminal division he helped prosecute Boss Tom Pendergast of Kansas City (the man who put Truman in the senate); convicted Gov. Richard Leche of Louisiana and other members of the old Huey Long gang; tried the indicted pro-Nazi seditionists. More recently he had been in Europe collecting evidence from Goering, Ribbentrop and other Nazi prisoners.

GOP and Communists.

While squawking about alleged links between Democrats and Communists, GOP National Chairman Carroll Reece has been significantly silent about a Republican-Communist alliance right in his own backyard.

It is the link-up between the Republican party and pro-Communist Vincent Longhi, candidate from New York's 12th congressional district in Brooklyn.

Despite interesting police and FBI records showing him close to the Communists, the Republicans are pushing Longhi for election to congress.

Here are some of the things in Longhi's record:

1. He failed to report for induction into the army, but when later he joined the merchant marine, prosecution was dropped.

2. Office manager of the Joint Anti-Fascist League, a pro-Communist organization; also an officer of the National Maritime Union, which has strong leftist leanings.

3. Affiliated with the Communist newspaper, "L'Unita del Popolo."

Despite all this Chairman Carroll Reece, while trying to pin the Communist label on the Democrats, is supporting Longhi.

Dewey-Donovan Feud.

Beneath the surface all is not too happy in one wing of the Dewey campaign headquarters. General "Wild Bill" Donovan, most decorated hero of World War I and organizer of the OSS in World War II is being a good sport about it, but his friends feel anything but friendly toward the New York governor.

It all dates back to a conference between Dewey and Donovan in the Roosevelt hotel last August, when the general asked Dewey for his support to get the GOP nomination for the senate. Dewey, however, gave Donovan the brush-off. What he said in substance was:

"Let's wait a while. Wagner is a sick man and may not be long for this world. When his vacancy occurs, then I can appoint you to the senate."

Dewey assured him that the Republicans were so strong in New York that they could sweep any nonentity into office.

Reading between the lines, Donovan's friends also say that Dewey was fearful of Donovan's colorful personality and national stature, including his record in two wars.

Dewey and his machine still are peevish over the way FDR rolled up 70 per cent of the veterans' vote in 1944.

They feel, however, that they can make a deal with the A. F. of L. and thus crack labor's previous solidarity in New York state. To that end, Donovan's friends claim that Dewey made a deal with the president and secretary-treasurer of the state Federation of Labor to scuttle Donovan as the senatorial candidate, taking instead Irving M. Ives, dean of the School of Industrial Relations at Cornell.

Donovan, a good sport, has been managing Ives' campaign. But a lot of his supporters aren't such good sports. They are bitter over the knifing Dewey gave Donovan, and they may do a litle undercutting themselves when 1948 rolls round and the governor trains his sights once again on the White House.

Advancing Toward Five-Day Week

A FIVE-DAY WEEK for savings bank employes is advocated by Robert M. Catharine, president of the Dollar Savings bank of New York City, addressing a state bankers' convention.

This undoubtedly indicates the social trend of the future. Those fortunate enough to have Saturdays off testify that the effect is much like having a week's vacation. While many businesses need remain open on Saturday, a Monday off might be granted the Saturday workers.

Incidentally, it appears there are no objections except sentimental ones to having all holidays fall either on Saturday or Monday, regardless of the weekday on which they would normally come. Canadians enjoy and stoutly defend their custom of Monday Thanksgiving. Most American workers are pleased when Memorial day and the Fourth fall on Monday.

Deferred Schooling.

Editor News-Journal:

I am an ex-G.I., and after my discharge last winter, re-entered Ohio State. But I am out again because some misguided politicians were able to swing a court order throwing us out of Baker Hall (although it was built for men students), and in favor of 17-18 year old girls.

My schooling was deferred three years, 14 months of it fighting in the mud and slime of Italy, and getting a couple of frozen feet in the snows of Germany! Now again my schooling is deferred on account of lack of accommodations, which they promise after the first of the year. I figure I will be about 26 when I am out of college.

Why couldn't these teen-agers, who seemed mostly concerned with sororities and husband-hunting, be deferred for a year? My one ray of hope is to get into another college that is not so politically ridden as OSU.

I ask you, in all fairness, can you blame me for being discouraged—and bitter?

Some Mask for Fun, Others for Viciousness.

WASHINGTON — By the old Celtic calendar, this is All Saints' eve, and across the country in fearful masks, bedsheets and many a mysterious disguise, merrymakers will fare forth to frighten people—all in fun.

But there are certain sections of this land of liberty where even on Halloween the appearance of men in masks and bedsheets does not herald the start of merrymaking.

And the terror they spread is not a thing of fun.

Perhaps it was symbolic that the newest chapter of horror in the nation's saddest story—that of racial prejudice and violence—came as a grisly sort of prelude to this year's All Hallow's eve.

Recorded in an "unimportant" news story and relegated to the inside pages of most newspapers, the incident understandably attracted little attention in a nation beset by atomic arguments, election campaigns and armament disputes.

But it, too, in its own way, was important to world peace.

From Atlanta, Ga., the news item yesterday read:

"Three white youths wearing insignia similar to that of the 'Columbians,' a newly organized secret society, severely beat a Negro with a blackjack last night, Atlanta police revealed tonight."

The story stated that the "Columbians" recently were chartered with "announced intentions of keeping Negroes out of areas occupied by whites . . ."

Down at the department of justice here in Washington, the story was carefully scrutinized by federal bureau of investigation men. It did not come as a surprise, for they had been expecting this.

Publicly, the G-men who have been investigating the activities of the Ku Klux Klan throughout the country, had no comment.

Privately, it was learned that the wires were busy between here and Atlanta throughout the day.

Smart strategists do not overlook even "minor patrol activities" on the enemy's part. Neither do the G-men.

Nor did the story come as a surprise to this correspondent. Four months of this year have been spent touring the South, during the time when local, state, sectional and federal heat was being put on the KKK. (For make no mistake: The decent majority of citizens in the South detest the Klan the same as decent citizens everywhere.)

"But what if they do kill off the Klan?" asked a middle-aged salesman in Atlanta. "It knows its days probably are doomed, and already it's breaking up into new organizations which will be run by the same old secret high command. The work will go on under a bunch of new names, and they'll be ten times as hard to prosecute because you'll have to track them down and convict each group."

In Meridian, Mississippi, a young veteran said bitterly:

"They're already trying to organize new anti-racial secret gangs with us guys as the ringleaders. They figure if they can suck in a few veterans it will be good membership propaganda. I know. They've been trying to get me, and the pressure got so rough over in (he named another city) that I quit my job and came here to live. There's not so much of that sort of stuff here. But it's spreading."

In a little Louisiana town, another veteran said thoughtfully:

"In some ways, it probably would be better if they didn't break up the Klan—because it knows it's on the spot and it has to watch its step. It doesn't dare go too far. But if it's broken up, and its activities are taken over by these little, unknown gangs, you'll have a regular epidemic of lynchings and the like. And they'll really get rough right at first, just to show the Negroes that breaking up the Klan isn't going to mean a thing, as far as they're concerned!"

And one admitted Klansman openly chortled that "if the G-men bust up the KKK, we'll just get some new uniforms. That's all!"

Nor was this seen solely in the South. A California racial fanatic told this correspondent:

"We'd like to use the Klan's organization, but we don't dare. The heat's on it, so we've had to build our own outfit."

And in Michigan and elsewhere there were echoes of the same trend.

It begins to look as though killing the Klan will be like chopping one masked head off Hydra.

Sometimes it makes you wish that, even in fun of Halloween, the kids wouldn't get into the habit of hiding behind masks.

President Truman Main Issue In Campaign

WASHINGTON — Everywhere you go in the country, whenever there is talk of politics, the conversation quickly centers on President Truman.

Though this is a congressional and local election, the president is the chief topic. Republicans are making him the issue, running against him everywhere, even in some cases down to local offices. It does not matter that the local offices have nothing to do with national affairs.

The president is the handiest symbol, as a president always is when things are not running smoothly.

Most significant perhaps in the talk of private individuals is the point always interjected—as if a brand new discovery — that the job of president is a tremendous one, too big a job for one man, as they express it. Then someone says that the nation must find "a big man" next time.

Harry Truman's stock is lower now than it has been since he was catapulted into the White House, and likely lower than it will be any time henceforth. Now everything stands out in exaggerated lights and shadows. That is always the case in campaigns. Later President Truman again will come into more true perspective.

Harry Truman is learning, and the public also, the truth of what Jonathan Daniels, who worked on the inside here during the war as an aide to both Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, says in his interesting new book, "Frontiers on the Potomac:"

"The president remains a man And the man never quite possesses the power which he has. It is too big to wield. There are more checks in the balanced pressures around him than there are in the Constitution. Also, theoretically (except in the duties of ceremony in which he must appear in person and those responsibilities to public opinion in which his voice must be heard), he can delegate every duty and leave himself free to the pleasures of the palace.

"He does delegate practically every power he possesses, but he does not escape any responsibility he has assumed. Some of the delegated powers stay delegated, but many of them come roaring back through the anteroom to the president's desk. Generally there is more pressure than pleasure in the palace where he sits."

Harry Truman has found that out, as every president does, and now it is accentuated by the campaign. He adopted the course when he succeeded Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was a strong personal president, of delegating more powers to cabinet officers. But, as Mr. Daniels says, some of them always come roaring back, and the president must accept the ultimate responsibility.

Our people have it that way. Undoubtedly Harry Truman suffers some from contrast with the president who preceded him. Because of the times in which Mr. Roosevelt served—first depression, then reform, then war—there was, too, the constant spectacle of high drama about the White House.

Perhaps the reaction against the president just now, and nowhere is it bitter, represents the disappointment of many people who, at the start, were overjoyed that Harry Truman was "just like the rest of us."

That was the source of much of his early overwhelming popularity. Perhaps, secretly, the people really want a man who stands out above the crowd, who has a bit of mystery about him, somebody to look up to.

Vandenberg Looms Large In UN Circles.

NEW YORK — As you look down from the gallery on the United Nations assembly in meeting, a conspicuous figure is the massive head and the hunched shoulders of Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg. He sits a little to the side in the front row with the United States delegation, which is to the left of the U. S. S. R. and to the right of the United Kingdom in the gallery-eye view.

The senator from Michigan is one of the most interesting and complex personalities in public life today.

He has undergone a remarkable evolution from cynical isolationist to a hard-working internationalist who takes his responsibilities with deadly seriousness.

There are many, and they include some of the Republican colleagues, who find the Vandenberg personality irritating. They say he is vain and pompous. They even say he is ambitious, which is hardly a damning adjective for a politician.

They find it annoying that Vandenberg should credit himself, as he does, with having stopped politics at the water's edge. But when they have said all these things about him, they have not really detracted from the contribution he has made.

The significant fact is that he has worked steadily day in and day out with Secretary of State Byrnes on a common foreign policy for the United States.

Even those who disapprove of this policy must recognize the fact that in the future it will be much more difficult, against the background of such a precedent, for the two parties to quarrel openly and publicly over foreign issues to the extent that America's position in the world is undermined.

The senator from Michigan is running for re-election. It is, as he says, perhaps the first time that a United States senator has been up for re-election without once putting his foot on his state during the campaign.

During the summer and early fall Vandenberg was in Paris attending the peace conference. Since then he has been either in Washington or New York attending the sessions of the United Nations assembly at which he is almost always among those present.

Judging from most reports, his re-election seems assured. Naturally, his backers in Michigan have exploited the theme that he should be supported while he is in the front line doing his patriotic duty.

The real test for Vandenberg, as leader, will come, it seems to me, in the months ahead. There is no doubt of his agreement with Byrnes on the broad outline of foreign policy. The fact remains, however that thus far that agreement has been largely on the negative aspects of policy—firm resistance to the positive expansionism of Soviet Russia.

The test will lie in whether or not Vandenberg can persuade his party to follow him in taking the positive steps essential to implement policy.

Vandenberg is well aware that positive steps are necessary. This means the use of America's economic bargaining power is an effective and realistic way. It means a judicious use of the lending power.

Certainly, Vandenberg is in earnest. And he can be expected to fight hard to bring the diehards in his own party into line with his view of the world.

Farmer's Diary: "Wild Grapes."

THERE are more wild grapes this year than for several years past. In early June the delicate, eerie fragrance of the misty, gray-green blooms of wild grapes filtered down from the clambering vines on the high elms and oaks of the wooded hills. Faintly, on the moving silent air currents, it filled the river valleys.

To the sensitive nostril, distance only lends it greater sweetness—a challenging, disturbing tantalizing muskiness that lasts only for the several days while wild bees, new butterflies, and small woodflies sip nectar from the feathery spikes of wild grape bloom. And when the soft threadlike petals droop from age, and fall loosely on the moist woods floor, all the neighboring hills have lost June's sweetest magic.

All summer long the large heart-shaped leaves feed the sturdy vine and the slow-growing fruit. During late August, the suspended spikes of closely bunched berries change from green to purple. The tough outside surface enlarges from the center.

Last week I traveled through a brambly woodland, matted thick in places by giant wildgrape vines. One huge parent stock had attached itself to a lofty white oak branch 30 feet or more up. All through those spreading branches hung purple bunches of wild grapes.

I seized the long free vine with coils upon the ground, and swung in a lengthy arc. The jerking caused large bunches to fall among the drifts of leaves upon the ground. I picked up the finest, uninjured ones and filled my coat pockets.

Strolling home, I idly picked one grape at a time and ate it.

The juicy pulp beneath the leathery purple skin was saturated with wine-like tartish sweetness that never could completely satisfy. The eater only craved more.

At home, I hung that coat carefully away, and from time to time as I read the evening paper and the family was about the kitchen, I got up from my chair and found the shortest way to reach those fragrant pockets. My fingers became stained with the purple and when the fruit was gone, there still remained for a long time a perfume as sprightly and compelling as the succulent berry itself.

BEAT INFLATION, URGES FICHTER

LORAIN — (INS) — A "boom or bust" period is not a necessary aftermath of the war, State Grange Master Joeph W. Fichter contended today.

Addressing a Lorain county rally at Amhurst, Fichter insisted that "agriculture, labor and management are well enough organized to prevent extreme inflation or depression."

He continued:

"In spite of our griping about shortages, people in all groups—agriculture, labor and management—are probably today enjoying the highest degree of prosperity of any period in our history.

"The fear of what is around the corner, however, is making us uneasy"

Fichter said the law of supply and demand could not function naturally because of the "pressure exerted by monopolies and organized groups"

"I believe," the grange master stated, "that the nationally organied groups of agriculture, labor and management can prevent such a catastrophe (a period of major inflation or depression) if their representatives are willing to meet in conference, in an attitude of open-mindedness, and with a willingness to make concessions to reach a just compromise of differences. The memberships of the organizations would welcome such an agreement."

Tired, "All-In"—Listless Feeling Brought To Halt

As Vibrant Energy is Released To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Do you get up in the mornings still tired, feel down-and-out all day? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Overwork, undue worry, cold, flu or other illness often wears down the red-blood-cells.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Eureka Birthday Club Meets at Peyton Home

Halloween favors decorated the table when the Eureka Birthday club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Peyton. There were ten members present and two guests, Mrs. Millie Donnan and Mrs. L. L. Linkhart.

The card prizes were "white elephants" with each player winning a prize. Mrs. George Finney won high score prize.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. Orra Bauer, Clifton boulevard.

HOROSCOPE

For Friday, November 1

Although there may be tenacious obstacles or want of endorsement and support from those in influential places, yet there is nothing that may not be conquered, put off or vanquished entirely by straightforward attack, with clever ideas and aggressive action. The mind will be found shrewd, active and intelligent in its judgments and grasp of frustrating situations and the energies may be well-organized for strenuous and determined performance. Changes may be of importance, with new ventures, contracts and offers quickly and enthusiastically to be grasped. Flexibility and determination count.

Those whose birthday it is are assured a year of definite and productive activities and concrete culminations if they will marshall their splendid energies, forces and faculties in the direction of well-organized and practical projects. There may be stubborn obstacles or impediments, with lack of support from desirable places. With aggressive action, initiative and persistent effort, even though flexible and sagacious insight should change, be expedient. Surprising returns are in sight. Plan ahead, make fresh starts, new contracts and associations. This in private as well as business life, for gratifying and lasting fulfillments.

City's Readers Turn to Technical Books, Serious Fiction, Library Records Show

By MARGUERITE MILLER

Mansfielders are "finding themselves" through the reference files in the city's Public library.

Freed from the tension of the long war years, prospective business men and ambitious veterans have made the library a mecca for background material on specific occupations they want to enter.

"We're doing more reference work, both by phone and by personal calls, than ever before," Miss Lois MacKellar, head librarian, commented. "It seems to be a period in which everyone is finding himself and planning for his life work.

"Veterans come in looking for material on colleges and universities which they plan to enter, and for foundation work on salesmanship and business. Established business men are paying greater attention to our list of manufacturers and their products."

As a result of the stepped-up interest in this direction, the library has set up a complete file on occupations, which Miss MacKellar said has had a "lot of use."

Taste Changes.

As for those persons who use the library as a source of pleasure reading, the tendency has been away from war narratives to the diversified fields of international problems, race relations and fiction.

"People are hunting for something different to read in their spare moments," the librarian continued. "Fiction is as strongly supported as any other reading, but it's generally of a higher type."

An example of this "David, the King," by Gladys Schmidt, which is a fictional work on the Biblical King David. Other fiction, all of which has a long waiting list at the library, includes: "The Hucksters," by Frederick Wakeman; "The Egg and I," a highly humorous personal narrative by Betty MacDonald: "This Side of Innocence," by Taylor Caldwell, which boasts more reserves than any other fiction in the library; and "The King's General," by Daphne DuMaurier.

In the non-fiction class, the most favored are "Dinner at the White House," by Louis Adamic; "Pleasant Valley," by Louis Bromfield; "Color Blind," a discussion of race relations by Margaret Halsey who recently wrote "Some of My Best Friends Are Soldiers"; "Peace of Mind," a discussion of personal problems by Rabbi Joshua Liebman; and Leland Stowe's "While Time Remains," a discussion of international problems.

Barclay On Bridge

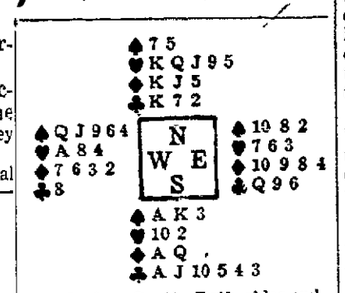
If a player knowingly goes counter to the law of averages, he is going counter to his own best interests. That is, except on those rare occasions when a man's "hunch" pans out, or perhaps "woman's intution," about which we poor mere men understand exactly nothing. But the player who customarily favors following a 6 to 5 advantage will meet success six times out of 11 in the long run, whereas the one who deliberately pursues a 5 to 6 course will fail six times out of 11.

North, who is quite a brilliant and confident chap, but also changes his ideas about bidding and play periodically, did not particularly overbid his hand, but he did indicate his hearts had at least a card more length when he called them three times in a row.



(Dealer: South. Both sides vulnerable.)

| South | West | North | East |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 ♣ | Pass | 1 ♥ | Pass |
| 2 NT | Pass | 4 ♥ | Pass |
| 5 ♣ | Pass | 5 ♥ | Pass |
| 6 ♥ | | | |

He was straining to become the declarer, rather than have his partner play the hand.

East led the diamond 4. The A was played and the heart 2 led, West scoring the A and returning the diamond 3 to the K. Followed then two high hearts and the spade 5 to the A.

North was now ready to tackle the crucial clubs, with the entire contract depending on the Q. He led the J from dummy to tempt a cover, overtook with the K and then led the 7. After East played the 9 he studied.

"This leaves East five cards and West six," he mused. "As I look at the back of those cards, any one of them has one chance out of 11 to be the missing queen. West has six cards and East five, so the chances are 6 to 5 West has it." He therefore went up with the A, which established the Q as the setting trick for East.

"Next time I'm going to finesse in that situation," said North. If he does, and adopts that procedure regularly, it will cost him points. The law of averages will still pay dividends in such spots, if followed soundly, and frust of it will be profitable, even if it fails five times out of 11.

America gave the world a new and fully developed type of leather-soled shoes—the moccasin.

Trial By Jury First In Court For 10 Years

What may be the first trial by jury in 10 years in Mansfield municipal court today was set for Nov. 12 with Augustus Pius Topper, of Bucyrus, as the defendant. He is charged with failing to yield the right-of-way.

Topper seeks to prove that he is innocent of the charge placed against him following a collision involving his car and one driven by John S. Teschler, 196 East Third street.

The case originally was heard Oct. 23 when Topper pleaded innocent but was found guilty by Judge H. H. Schettler.

When Topper vehemently insisted that he was innocent, Judge Schettler vacated his "guilty" order so that Topper could employ counsel and the case could be reheard and an official record being kept of proceeding.

Yesterday, Topper applied for trial by jury and his right to apply was upheld by Judge Schettler. The last trial by jury held in municipal court was in 1936. Since then four other jury trials were requested but never were heard.

Topper, 51, of 515 Rensselaer street, Bucyrus, was driving a 1946-model car when the accident occurred Oct. 18 at First and Main streets. Officers said he made a left turn against on-coming traffice

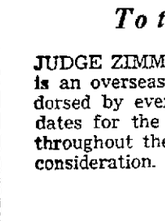
From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh



Friendship—Three Thousand Miles Apart

Ever play chess? It's a great game! One of the strongest friendships I know of started with a game of chess—between Dad Hoskins, in our town, and a man named Dalton Barnes, in England.

They've never seen each other, never met. But for the past eight years they've been playing chess by mail together — Dad puzzling over Dalton's latest letter, while he sends a chart of his next move to England.

Dad always thinks best with a mellow glass of beer beside his chessboard. And the Englishman writes him that he does the same. "You know, it's almost as if we shared a glass of beer together, too!" says Dad contentedly.

From where I sit, you can talk about diplomacy and foreign policy, but it's often those little things —like a game of chess or a glass of beer—that can make for tolerance and understanding . . . between people of all nations . . . between neighbors here at home!

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN
Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood Get Doan's Pills —Adv

PILES ARE NEVER "MILD"
DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formations without tendency to heal themselves, instead, they are likely, if neglected, to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as indigestion, biliousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in the back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief — written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

U. S. Compares to England 100 Years Ago In Financing

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(AP)—Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, chairman of the subcommittee on the Bretton Woods agreements and operation, told the corporation banking and mercantile law section of the American Bar association yesterday that the United States was in the same position now as England 100 years ago as the world's greatest and perhaps only creditor nation.

"We have the same opportunity which England seized to raise the standards of living of many backward countries, and at the same time profit ourselves in an increasing standard of living here through the import of necessary and desirable goods," Taft said.

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development was preparing for the issuance of debentures, Taft said, but statutes of various states do not as yet permit certain kinds of investors to handle the bank's securities. He said New York recently amended its statutes with reference to investments of savings banks to permit inclusion of IBRD debentures.

Taft said the bank and the international monetary fund, also set up by the Bretton Woods agreement, would have legal personality, the ability to contract, to acquire and dispose of property, and to sue in courts.

Taft said the economic and social council of the United Nations would be essential in the coordination of all subsidiary international agencies of which the bank and fund were two of the most important.

"One of the great fears of foreign countries in cooperating for the restoration of trade and business is the possible development of a depression and unemployment in the United States," Taft said.

SHORTAGES SLOW ARMY DISCHARGES

WASHINGTON —(U.P.)— Inadequate shipping space and lack of replacements threaten to upset the army's plan to discharge by January 1 all men drafted during 1945, it was learned yesterday.

The army now finds there are about 70,000 such draftees overseas who cannot be returned to this country in time to meet the deadline. It will be march before many of them are discharged, it was said.

The delay will affect between 50,000 and 60,000 draftees now in the Pacific and some 15,000 in Europe.

SURGEON RETURNS

GALION — Having been discharged recently from the army after serving a year overseas in Korea as a surgeon, Dr. John A. Beall has returned to Rochester, N. Y., where he is the resident in surgery at the Rochester General hospital. He spent the past weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Beall of Harding way west.

Try and Stop Me

—By Bennet Cerf

Dr. Morris Fishbein was a member of the preview audience that was thrilled by "The Lost Weekend." On the way out he said it reminded him of this story—

A saloon-keeper had just unlocked his premises for the day's business when a pink elephant and a purple rhinoceros mooched up to the bar. "I'm sorry, boys," said the bartender. "He hasn't come in yet."

* * *

Rastus Green insisted on riding the merry-go-round at Coney Island before he ate his picnic lunch His wife, watched from the street with concentrated disapproval When he came out, she remarked caustically, "Well, Rastus, yo' is spent yo' money, but whar is yo' been?"

When Colonel Putnam was alive, an old beggar accosted him, declaring that he was a veteran soldier. "You don't look it," said the Colonel bluntly, and barked, "Attention! Eyes right! Eyes front! Now what comes next?" "Present Arms," was the instant rejoinder. It won a handout.

Conference of American small business Organizations

BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING CHICAGO 4 ILLINOIS WABASH 3780

October 4, 1946

The Honorable J Harry McGregor
West Lafayette
Ohio

Dear Congressman McGregor:

During the session of the 79th Congress this Conference has been watching very closely the work of individual Congressmen with respect to their interest in legislation which might affect the welfare of the small business concerns of America.

You more than most of the other members of the House of Represent a tives, have shown yourself to be in great in the problems confronting small business and we are mindful of your efforts to aid us in solving some of the problems small business is facing especially that large percen Age of retail and wholesale trade and small manufacturing, which has been regimented and harassed by bureaucracy beyond any emergency necessity

We wish especially to commend you for your statesman-like stand on what are regarded as controversial issues. Your public statement to the effect that what is best for the country as a whole is also best for business as a whole and best for labor as a whole, is to be commended as a forthright statement of fact but it is the kind of statement which takes courage to back up the conviction.

We wish to take this opportunity of expressing to you deep appreciation for your consistative work in promoting the passage of good legislation to save our free enterprise system and private initiative in America, as typified by small business.

We also appreciate your unfailing courtesy and friendliness whenever we have had occasion to call on you in your Washington office.

I wish it were possible for me, personally, to tell every business man throughout the 17th Congressional District that he should register a vote in favor of election to you.

Cordially and sincerely
Fred A. Virkus, Chairman

Pegler — Fair Enough

NEW YORK—Resuming his role of Johnny Appleseed, this time as a man without a party save that the Communists alone find him almost good enough for them. Henry Wallace told a gathering of Negroes in Los Angeles that "big manufacturers" oppose F.E.P.C. and "strictly from dollar motives, the most ignoble motive of all."

F.E.P.C. is a device, disguised as a proposal to forbid racial discrimination in employment, whereby an employer might be forced to hire and retain a lazy, incompetent, dishonest and generally pestiferous Negro, because he was a Negro, and in spite of that individual's faults, to the exclusion of a competent and virtuous white worker. On the precedents established under the Wagner Act, all such faults might be acknowledged and the employer still would be forbidden to reject or fire this individual who would then have, in theory, life tenure guaranteed merely because he was a negro. This would be racial discrimination in favor of the Negro and against the white person.

The Labor Relations board held, and the federal courts upheld the board, that under the Wagner Act an employe could not be dismissed for acknowledged faults if the board itself chose to believe that the prime reason for dismissal was the employe's unionism.

* * *

THE BOARD could go into the employer's mind, reject valid reasons which normally are sufficient to justify discharge of a worthless and troublesome employe, and determine that the employer secretly desired to punish the subject for being a union man or for exhorting the rest to form a union. In actual experience in many cases, an employe who was on the point of being fired for good reason had only to become an active nuisance as a union agitator to protect himself.

However, when Wallace states that "big manufacturers" are prejudiced and condemns the dollar motive as "the most ignoble" of all, he first insults the intelligence of all negroes who know that mass-production employers are absolutely color-blind, and second, ventures close to blasphemy against a motive sanctified by his late chief. Mr. Big, who borrowed the morals and methods of J. Rufus Wallingford to bilk John Hartford of $196,000 and Jesse Jones of $4,000 in the historic case of Elliott Roosevelt's $200,000 bite. Not only in his son's case but in all his own financial dealings, President Roosevelt revealed a high respect for the dollar motive, and his personal and political household reverently restrained any impulse to flout the master's teachings. So Mr. Wallace here propounds a heresy that may well wreck the cult, and get him anathematized by the widow, Elliott, Jimmy and Harold L. Ickes.

* * *

THE PREJUDICE of white against black, and vice versa, certainly no localized and artificial plague of General Motors, Ford or any other industrial empire, is no less a nuisance to those soulless corporations than it is the black man's woe.

It was here long before Studebaker wrought his first buggy wheel and it is the sin, not of employers, as such, whether great or small, but of Mr. Wallace's own protege, the common man. It is he, the common man, and the common black man as well as the faceless anonymity of the pink and sallow breeds, who keeps a brick behind the clock and provocations on the tip of his tongue and, if Mr. Wallace had the virtue of sincerity, he might do some good and leave a footprint in the sands by telling the muckers so to their faces on his travels.

Lippmann — Today and Tomorrow

THE CHICKENS have come home to roost. Russian Foreign Minister Molotov's address to the United Nations assembly is the powerful counterattack to which we have exposed ourselves because the strategic plan and the tactics of our peace-making have been based on a deep miscalculation of the situation.

Our strategic plan has been to concentrate our diplomatic efforts on an attempt by negotiation to reduce the power of the Soviet Union in eastern Europe—in the sphere of influence where the Red army is dominant. We have not succeeded because one cannot by argument compel an army to go home.

In devoting a year to this argument, we have lost a year which could have been devoted to constructive effort in the sphere where the British and Americans have influence and power — in western Germany and western Europe, in the Mediterranean and the Middle East, and in the colonial areas of Africa and Asia.

* * *

WE HAD FIXED our attention on the Red army in eastern Europe; Molotov has counterattacked by fixing attention on the British and American forces which are dispersed in so many parts of the world.

We had fixed attention on the absence of democracy and independence in the Russian zone: Moltov fixes attention on Spain and Greece, and exploits against us the whole seething discontent of the dependent and the colonial peoples.

All this was to be expected. All this was foreseen and foreseeable. When we abandoned the idea of a general settlement in Europe and in the world, attacked the Russians where they are strongest and we the weakest, and neglected to build up our own position and system where we could be strong, we were following a strategic plan which was self-defeating.

Our tactics — the procedure which we invented for the peace-making—are based on the same kind of miscalculation and have proved to be equally self-defeating. Finding that we could not argue the Russians out of the Russian orbit, our tactics have been to insist on open debate and public votes. Our theory was that this would enlighten and arouse public opinion, and that the Russians would in the end bow to it.

* * *

BUT THE THEORY overlooks the most obvious of all the facts —namely that while it has aroused, and perhaps enlightened, public opinion in the western countries, public opinion is still censored and managed in the Russian orbit. In challenging the Russians to a propaganda contest, the weapons were, therefore, quite unequal.

The tragedy of the peace is that none of the men—not the top men or their great lieutenants—who learned the hard way to regard the world as strategically one world, is now engaged in settling the war.

Since the world is strategically one world, the diplomacy of the settlement is certain to fail ignominiously and disastrously, in a cataract of pious abstractions and ugly words, if the Big Three do not find men who know how to take this great and controlling reality as the major premise and the first principle of their calculation, their plans and their daily expedients.

SURPRISE MOVE BY OPA ENDS SHOE CEILINGS

Action Taken as Indication of Trend to Free Clothing, Textiles From Controls.

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The future of clothing price controls appeared uncertain today in the face of a surprise administration order removing ceilings from shoe prices.

The shoe decontrol action, effective at 12:01 a. m. today, marked the first important decontrol step affecting the national apparel budget.

Some quarters saw indications of further moves in the same direction in these developments:

1. An apparent trend toward removal of civilian production administration controls on textiles and clothing.

2. Increasing pressure for removal of price controls on cotton textiles to prevent further downward pressure on the slumping cotton market.

3. A brightening production picture throughout the clothing industry.

The shoe directive was announced by Reconversion Director John R. Steelman, who said he considered the action "in the best interest of production and supply to consumers." The order included decontrol of leather, skins, hides and footwear.

Price Going Up.

Government officials in close contact with the shoe trade predicted retail price increases of 20 to 30 per cent. A spokesman for the shoe manufacturers said in Chicago, however, "that prices will not rise "above the level of other commodities."

The trend toward removal of allocation and production controls in the clothing field was positively demonstrated Wednesday when CPA removed the important cotton "loom freeze" order. The freeze controlled the output of 75 per cent of the nation's 500,000 cotton looms.

Another step in the same direction was indicated by reports of buyer resistance to the CPA low-cost clothing production program. The program may soon join the loom freeze as a casualty of the accelerated drive toward a free economy.

GRANGE STAGES HOLIDAY PARTY

(Reprinted From Yesterday's Late Edition.)

A Halloween party, staged last night by the young people's group of the Madison Grange, was attended by 115 persons at the Little Washington church.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of Carlton Trease as Harvest King, and Miss Doris McClelland as Harvest Queen.

Prize for the best dressed masquerader was won by Max McFarland. Lorain Hall, Nell Hammett and Jim Fisher won prizes for the most comical costumes. The prize for the best dressed child went to Barbara Ann McFarland.

Mrs. Helen Baer took charge of the children's games and contests and Miss Norma Lee Mitchell served as general chairman of the party and chairman of the refreshments committee.

The next meeting of the Grange will be Nov. 7 at 8 p. m. in the basement of the Little Washington church. Election of officers will be held.

Divorce Decrees Granted to Two

MILLERSBURG—Two divorces were granted by Common Pleas Judge Elmo M. Estill.

Bucyrus' Centenarian Enjoys 101st Anniversary of Birth

BUCYRUS — The only known centenarian in Bucyrus, Mrs. Jennie Sells, who was 101 years old recently was the proud recipient of a deep purple orchid, sent her on the occasion of her anniversary by the Tom Brennaman "Breakfast in Hollywood" radio program.

She sits in her chair at the Scott Rest home, Fisher street, with the orchid on a table near her, together with a gladioli bouquet from the Alpha Bible class of the Lutheran church in Galion.

Mrs. Sells, more widely known as "Aunt Jennie," was a resident of Galion for many years, where she lived alone on South street.

Asked to what she attributed her long life, Aunt Jennie answered, "I never drank any coffee," and then quoted a bit of poetry, "water cold, from a crystal fountain flowing, is better than gold.'"

Mrs. Sells is the widow of Amos Sells, a Lutheran preacher with whom she travelled over the United States in a horse and buggy. They travelled extensively in the west, living among the Indians, teaching and preaching to them. She speaks often of Kansas and the "big winds," there.

Aunt Jennie's advice to a troubled world is: "You have to be a good neighbor; take a good neighbor with you, and you'll always have one."

Mrs. Sells was educated in a Pennsylvania seminary; she likes nature and the woods and has many tales of bears, of picking wild strawberries and nuts, etc.

Though her mind wanders at times, Aunt Jennie is otherwise very healthy, according to Mrs. Iva Scott, who operates the rest home. There are six other ladies at the home, the youngest of whom is 84. Mrs. Sells quotes scripture and poetry from memory, Mrs. Scott said, and often sings old religious songs she and her husband used in their meetings.

DEPUTY NABS CAR THIEVES

(Reprinted From Yesterday's Late Edition.)

Three Youngstown boys were held by the sheriff's office today on suspicion after they were captured in Lexington yesterday an hour after recovery there of an automobile stolen in Mansfield.

A 1946 model sedan belonging to Avery C. Hand, 619 Austin road, was stolen from in front of a Mansfield bank yesterday afternoon, and was recovered in Lexington half an hour later; due to the quick thinking of a Lexington truck driver.

The sheriff's office said Ralph Switzer, the truck driver, saw three youths in a new automobile pass him on a Lexington street; then stop the car suddenly and run down the street.

Switzer notified Deputy Sheriff Foster Palmer, who lives in Lexington. Palmer captured the boys on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks south of Lexington, and returned them to Mansfield.

The youths, two of whom were 17 and one 19 years old, were quoted by sheriff's officers as stating that they were on their way to California from Youngstown.

No formal charges had been filed against the youths today.

NINE TAX LEVIES DUE FOR ACTION NEXT TUESDAY

Bonds to Finance Building of Two New Shelby Schools to Be Submitted.

Voters in Mansfield and nine other Richland county communities next Tuesday will receive special ballots to mark for or against tax levies and one bond issue.

There are 11 tax levies, nine of them proposed to finance school districts, one to provide Mansfield with a municipal recreation program, and the other to insure continuation of street lighting in Butler.

Most of the boards of education have proposed the nine school levies in order to pay increased salaries to teachers and other employes, but of the nine only four will result in new taxes.

Three of the other five are already on the county tax duplicate and will mean simply renewing a tax already in effect. Two of the other five call for the renewal of two-mill levies and an additional levy of two mills.

Voters in Mansfield will be asked to approve a three-mill five-year levy for city school. It is a new tax, needed to finance proposed boosts in teachers' salaries.

* * *

5-Year Levy Offered.

Mansfielders will also be given a ballot for the city recreation levy which has been set at two-tenths of a mill for five years. If passed, it will finance a supervised playground and recreation program. This levy is a new tax.

In Shelby, residents will vote on a proposed two-mill four-year tax levy, aimed at financing increased teachers' salaries and other current expenses. If passed, it would be a new tax.

Also in Shelby, voters will cast ballots on a $600,000 bond issue to finance the erection of two new school buildings and improvements to the high school and its athletic field. Maximum life of the bonds is to be 20 years, which will require an estimated additional tax levy of three and four-tenths mills to pay the principal amount of the bonds and the interest on them.

Renewal Sought.

Bellville voters will consider renewing a three-mill three-year tax levy already in effect to finance school operations. Madison voters will vote for or against a levy of similar size for five years for school operations. This also would be renewal of a current tax.

Shiloh, Lucas and Lexington residents will be presented ballots on which to approve or disapprove new tax levies to finance their schools. At Shiloh the levy is for five mills for five years, at Lucas two mills for five years, and at Lexington three mills for three years.

The Mifflin and Union school districts are asking renewal of current levies and additional increases in order to finance current expenses. Both are for two-mill renewals and two-mill increases (a total of four mills on each ballot) and are for five-year periods.

In Butler, the issue is renewal of a two-mill tax levy which for the past nine years has supplied revenue for lighting the village's streets. It is proposed to renew the levy for another three years. Despite the fact that it is a renewal of a current tax the ballot will show the words "additional tax," a requirement of state law.

The Shelby bond issue requires a majority vote of 65 per cent, as does Mansfield's recreation levy. All the rest require a simple majority, or slightly more than 50 per cent of the total votes cast.

More than 6,500 persons jammed the curbs on Main street downtown to watch the costume parade headed by the 1905 Reo owned by Jack Love, Shelby tire dealer, and the Shelby high school and American Legion bands.

More than 500 persons wore Halloween costumes in the procession which marched on the downtown streets which had been blocked to motor traffic.

Other prize winners included: best dressed man, Mrs. John Beeman; woman, Mrs. Luke Edgar; boy, Eileen Holland; girl, Amy Lou LaBarge; and couple, "Mr. and Mrs. George Washington," who refused to give the judges their name.

The awards for the funniest costumes went as follows: man, Mrs. Milan Freese; woman, Vivian Roberts; boy, Robert Golz; and girl, Larry Loomis, jr.

Serving as judges were Mayor Frank Long, Supt. Byron H. Carmean of the Shelby schools, Miss Ruth Humm, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lendy, Ivo Moll, Fred McKinney, Mrs. Herb Golz, John S. Crum and Harold Chesrown.

Jim Shepherd, master of ceremonies, announced the events from the public address system loaned by the Parsel AAF Supply depot. John S. Crum was general chairman.

A square dance on Main street followed the parade. A round dance was held in the Eagle hall. The refreshment stand was operated by the Jaycees to help raise money to sponsor their activities.

The celebration was the second to be held here since World War II ended.

JUNIORS SET FOR CITY TITLE FUSS

6,000 Fans Expected at Annual Tilt

By BRUCE McGINTY

The weatherman, this morning, buoyed the hopes of Johnny Appleseed and John Simpson football squads with the prediction of clearing weather for their seventh annual junior high city championship fuss at Stadium field tonight at 8 o'clock.

Some 6,000 fans are expected to jam the Senior high athletic plant for the Halloween grid contest. More than 3,000 tickets were sold in the advance sale and the Stadium ticket booths will open at 7 p. m.

Both offensive-minded teams operate much smoother on a dry field. The Pioneers have compiled 97 points to their opponents' six, while the Simpson Bulldogs have allowed only 27 as they rolled up 94.

Simpson is after its fifth city championship game over Appleseed, who defeated the Bulldogs, 18 to 0 and 19 to 0 in the last two battles. Over 6,000 fans witnessed the 1945 encounter.

Coach Bob Kennedy, Simpson mentor, will rely on straight football tonight while Coach Norm Henline's Pioneers will take to the air, weather permitting.

Captain Howard Tipper, only Appleseed player to participate in the 1945 grid event, will handle the aerial assignment for the Pioneers. Jim Anderson, Appleseed end, will be on the receiving end of the Tipper passes. Anderson is leading the city junior high scoring with four touchdowns and two extra points, all via the airways.

Tommy Tucker, Bulldog wingback, and John Sazdanoff, Simpson halfback, are tied with Tipper for second place in the scoring race. All three have four touchdowns.

Tucker and Sazdanoff played in last years championship game along with Charlie Jenkins, fullback; Tom Weaver and Jim Miller, guards and Clarence Mason, end. Jenkins was at a guard post in 1945.

Tucker and Ken McCalley will be wearing casts tonight but will be in the starting lineup. Sazdonoff, with a bad shoulder bruise will not start, but Kennedy announced today that he would play most of game.

Henline reported that the Pioneers were in good condition for the game. Only Kenny Snider, 208 pound tackle, who broke his leg early in the season will be out of uniform.

Tygers Go to Toledo; Shelby In Spotlight

With Mansfield Senior high traveling to Toledo Waite and Madison enjoying an open date, the area football spotlight swings on the Shelby high Whippets tomorrow night when they entertain Norwalk in the annual homecoming fracas.

Coach Paul Snyder's 30-man Mansfield varsity squad is scheduled to leave for Toledo at 11:30 tomorrow for what promises to be one of Ohio's better grid clashes. The Tygers have been held to two ties in a row after winning five straight while once-beaten Waite is pushing Cleveland Cathedral Latin for state honors.

Snyder will have 19 lettermen available while Jack Mollenkopf, Toledo mentor, has 17 monogram winners off his fine 1945 squad. Burt Lindsay, sub Tyger lineman, is hobbling around on a bum knee, joining Kenny Horvath, back, and Tom Nixon, tackle, on the injured list. The latter gridders are out for the season.

Waite has rolled up 236 points in seven games while holding the opposition to 21. Toledo Libbey, the team that beat the Indians 8-6 in the mud, is the only club to hold Waite under 32 points. Steubenville Wells, the only other eleven to score on Waite, was beaten 32-13.

Mansfield has outscored its opposition, 160 to 46.

Ralph Majors and Bill McKee share scoring and ground-gaining honors. Both have counted 30 points while Majors tops the ground eaters with 514 yards to McKee's 278. Bill has the top average of 9.3, however.

The Snydermen are concluding their week's chores with a signal drill this afternoon at Stadium field.

Mansfield Senior high marching band will make its second out of town appearance at tomorrow's contest. The Tyger musicians went to Portsmouth as guests of the Tyger booster club and will make the trip to Toledo on the Mansfield Tire special.

The Tyger band is scheduled to participate in the pre-game flag-raising ceremony and will share the half-time spotlight with the Waite band. The bandsmen will have one of the nine coaches on the "special" which leaves the Pennsylvania station at 5 p. m.

Five hundred employes will make the trip on the train which is co-sponsored by the Tire 25-Year club and athletic commission.

Cleckner Gets 622

O. Cleckner of the Liederkranz, bowled a 223-193-206—622 in the City "A" Bowling league at the Colony Bowling Alleys last night.

Tygers Travel To Toledo

A win for Shelby will assure it of the undisputed championship regardless of the outcome of the Crestline game. A loss for the Whippets will mean that Shelby will have to defeat Crestline to get a share of the title along with Upper Sandusky.

In another homecoming game Friday night, Crestline will entertain the strong Norwalk eleven. Norwalk has only lost to Shelby, 14 to 6, and Bucyrus, 12 to 8.

In final league games, Bucyrus will travel to Bellevue and Galion to Willard.

Most of the league schools will close their football schedule against non-league opponents Nov. 8. Bellevue entertains Port Clinton, Galion plays host to Ashland, Norwalk travels to Oberlin, Willard entertains New London, and Upper Sandusky plays host to Carey.

Mt. Gilead is playing its second game of the week this afternoon at Fredericktown. The Indians went down to defeat before Marysville, 26-12, Monday afternoon in the Mid-State league championship contest.

Ashland, with two games to go, can compile its best won-lost record since the 1940 campaign. The 1946 club has won six of seven games and meets Port Clinton in Ashland tomorrow and goes to Galion next week. The 1910 A's won eight contests, losing only to Barberton, 5 to 2. They defeated Massillon that year, 6-0.

The Ashland-Port Clinton battle is the annual A's homecoming clash. Louise Keets, blonde Ashland senior, is the homecoming queen and her attendants are Patsy Streit, Margaret Moor, Esther Langlois and Martha Markey.

Ashland defeated Marion Harding 12-7 last week.

In the other area games tomorrow New London entertains Fairview and Millersburg meets Loudonville on the latter club's field.
